MALAY LANGUAGE GUIDE

Malay is spoken by about 14 million people in Malaya, Sumatra, Java and Borneo and is widely used as a trade language throughout the Netherlands East Indies. This Language Guide will enable you to ask directions, buy things or order a meal in the Malay-speaking regions. Knowing a little Malay will also help you get along with the people, for they will naturally be pleased to see a stranger showing enough interest in them to try to speak their language.

The variety of Malay given here (called Low, Basar, or Market Malay) is the everyday language of the ordinary people. The educated people speak a form of the language (called High Malay) which has a more complicated grammar, but they naturally also understand the simpler form of Malay.

There are a number of variations in the way Malay is spoken in different regions. The pronunciation given here, which is that used in Java, will be understood wherever Malay is spoken. If you find yourself in another region, try to speak like the people around you.

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
