Manuale D Amore Due:

Marco Bellocchio Clodagh Brook, 2010-04-02 Marco Bellocchio is one of Italy's most important and prolific directors with a career spanning five decades In this book Clodagh J Brook explores the boundaries between the public and the private the political and the personal and the collective and the individual as they appear in Bellocchio's films Including work on psychoanalysis politics film production autobiography and the relationship between film tradition and contemporary culture Marco Bellocchio touches on fundamental issues in film analysis Brook's study interrogates what it means to make personal or anti institutional art in a medium dominated by a late capitalist industrial model of production Her readings of Bellocchio's often enigmatic and perplexing work suggest new ways to answer questions about subjectivity objectivity and political commentary in modes of filmmaking Relating the art of a private director to a public medium Clodagh J Brook's work is an important contribution to our understanding of film

Recent Italian Cinema Tiziana Ferrero Regis, 2009 In Recent Italian Cinema two fundamental questions are asked the first concerns whether Italian cinema as national cinema is in reality reduced to a niche market in its own territory The second relates to what Italian audiences do with domestic films For nearly two decades most Italian films have been produced outside box office returns through a practice of subsidy and co financing between many institutional and private entities Thus Italian cinema has had to define its mode of production and use value of films in a different way It is clear that it is no longer possible to separate national cinemas from the grip that the American film industry has on world markets in terms of imagination and modes of production distribution and exhibition It is thus only by examining the multiple layers of description and analysis which take into account the presence of Hollywood that we can come to an understanding of what recent Italian cinema actually is

Screening Religions in Italy Clodagh J. Brook, 2019-11-13 Religion has had been foundational in shaping Italy Home to the Vatican State the Italian peninsula is the religious centre for one billion Catholics globally It is also increasingly home to those of other faiths especially Islam Italy's development as a contemporary post secular and multi religious society is fraught and fascinating The recent return of religious discourse from the margins of Western society to a central position is a sign of what German philosopher Jürgen Habermas has defined as the post secular condition Habermas and others have questioned what most people in the West had up to a few years ago taken for granted the unstoppable forward march of secularization and the subsequent marginalization of religion Instead one of the greatest global fault lines in the contemporary world the divide between absolutist extremist Islamic faith and liberal but Christian inflected secular values has religious identity at its core The first book length study to examine religion in contemporary Italian cinema and television fiction Screening Religions in Italy identifies two key issues how Italian filmmaking constructs the continuing position of religion in the public sphere and why religion persists on Italian screens It spans genres such as horror comedy hagiopics and TV fiction and explores both commercial and art house filmmaking It treats films and television series that range from Moretti's Habemus Papam to Sorrentino's The Young Pope
