

SAMPLE ADOPTION REFERENCE LETTER

From:

Mr. Danny Taylor
Apt 15, Morgan Apts.,
Arlington St., New York – 45213

To:

Mrs. Brenda Smith
Peter's Orphanage
Hampstead St., New York - 45213

February 01, 2012

Dear Mrs. Smith,

This letter is in reference to the adoption application of Mr. & Mrs. Rogers.

Mrs. Maggie Rogers is my daughter and I support this application very much.

Unfortunately, my daughter is not able to conceive and her inability to become a mother is eating her deep inside. She likes children a lot and she wants to have her own children, but medically it is not possible.

Now, the only hope remains is adoption.

I understand that you receive hundreds of applications from many aspiring couples for adopting a child from your orphanage, but you cannot just say 'Yes' to anyone coming to you for a child.

But, in this case, I can vouch for the capability of this couple as an adoptive parent.

Maggie, my daughter is a very caring person. She was the eldest among her siblings and she would take care of all their needs. I still remember that she should dress them up every morning for school and would prepare food for them in the absence of her mother. In fact, she enjoyed it all, taking care of brothers and sisters. She is true 'care-taker'.

And for Jack Rogers, the husband of Maggie, I would say that he is a very good hearted person. He is intelligent and a successful professional. He is in good practice of advocacy.

During the tumultuous years of World War II and the Cold War new global humanitarian ideas and practices coalesced around the cause of saving the children in China How did China s children become archetypal victims who ignited a new global humanitarian imagination And who would prevail in the transnational contest to control the vast quantities of aid flowing into China on their behalf The Adoption Plan offers a new history of the rise of global humanitarianism that places the recipients administrators and critics of humanitarian aid in China at the center of the story Analyzing how the adoption plan for international child sponsorship became one of the most popular fundraising strategies for humanitarian work in China and across the world Jack Neubauer explores how the globalization of humanitarian aid was linked to new practices of global intimacy that enabled donors to build personal relationships with Chinese children across geographic and cultural divides Drawing on hundreds of letters written by Chinese children to foreign sponsors and extensive research in Chinese archives Neubauer shows how China s Nationalist and Communist parties mobilized the emotional bonds between children and sponsors to secure international support for their competing political projects By the 1950s child sponsorship and international adoption had become the most hotly contested humanitarian programs in Cold War East Asia Upending the conventional view of humanitarianism as a tool of Western influence The Adoption Plan demonstrates that it was often the Chinese recipients of aid who were best able to control its material and ideological uses Federal Register ,2014
