150 50 PROJECT Cynthia Price,2024-03-25 Teacher relationships with students are built through awareness of how to achieve and maintain academic success positive school relationships and community awareness Other areas of significance are students developing skills to lead the school in meetings panel discussions seminars speech contests and positive school rallies that will reflect students input Positive student relationships provide alternative solutions to problems that students encounter at school and in the community      Systematic Classroom Assessment Sarah Bonner,Peggy Chen,2019-03-22

Systematic Classroom Assessment promotes a fresh vision of assessment for student learning and achievement Using a framework that positions assessment as both an iterative purposeful cycle of inquiry for teachers as well as a coherent system of activities through which students engage in their own learning this framework for classroom assessment is unique in incorporating self regulated learning motivation and non cognitive processes Key components such as assessment for learning feedback emerging technologies and specific content areas are treated in depth and fundamental principles like reliability validity and fairness are approached from the classroom perspective      Towards Transcultural Awareness in

Translation Pedagogy Julie Deconinck,Philippe Humblé,Arvi Sepp,Hélène Stengers,2018-03-11 This volume gathers a wide range of voices in Translation Studies offering theoretical insights and practical ideas on how to tackle the cultural dimension in translation pedagogy Issues range from curriculum planning to evaluation methods The volume illustrates that the practice of translating culture in the classroom goes beyond the translation of so called realia It also promotes the notion that translation teachers should foster transcultural awareness among their students whereby intercultural differences and similarities may be negotiated and transcended in the act of translation Julie Deconinck Philippe Humble Arvi Sepp and Helene Stengers are affiliated to the Applied Linguistics Department of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel Belgium

Ditransitives in Germanic Languages Eva Zehentner,Melanie Röthlisberger,Timothy Coleman,2023-08-15 This volume brings together twelve empirical studies on ditransitive constructions in Germanic languages and their varieties past and present Specifically the volume includes contributions on a wide variety of Germanic languages including English Dutch and German but also Danish Swedish and Norwegian as well as lesser studied ones such as Faroese While the first part of the volume focuses on diachronic aspects the second part showcases a variety of synchronic aspects relating to ditransitive patterns Methodologically the volume covers both experimental and corpus based studies Questions addressed by the papers in the volume are among others issues like the cross linguistic pervasiveness and cognitive reality of factors involved in the choice between different ditransitive constructions or differences and similarities in the diachronic development of ditransitives The volume s broad scope and comparative perspective offers comprehensive insights into well known phenomena and furthers our understanding of variation across languages of the same family      Central and Southeast
