Liberating the National History Curriculum Josna Pankhania,2017-11-01 Once there were bards who sang the songs which kept the listeners in touch with their past They reminded them of the heroes who once walked among them and whose legacy provided a sense of shared greatness and national identity Later the bards became historians and history teachers and English history became a glorious roll call of those who had gone out and created an Empire and at the same time spread education and enlightenment But recent doubts have raised questions about partiality and perhaps there were losses suffered by the Empire s people Perhaps their heritage should be our heritage and therefore a fit subject for history to deal with Originally published in 1994 this book argues that the curriculum can be legitimately used to teach students the history of oppressed groups It is important to note that Pankhania manages to do this not in a divisive spirit but with the intent to seek unity for the future by understanding and accepting the positive and negative aspects of a collective past Resources in Education ,2001-04 Daily Lesson Plans in English Caroline Stearns Griffin,2019-12-05 In Daily Lesson Plans in English Caroline Stearns Griffin presents a comprehensive guide designed for educators seeking to enhance their instructional strategies in the English language classroom This meticulously structured work blends practical lesson plans with a theoretical framework focusing on engaging pedagogical practices that align with contemporary educational standards Griffin s literary style is clear and concise offering succinct explanations and applicable examples that imbue each lesson with purpose making it an indispensable resource for both novice and experienced teachers navigating the complexities of English language instruction Caroline Stearns Griffin a seasoned educator with over two decades of experience in various educational settings brings her wealth of knowledge and dedication to teaching to the forefront in this book Her background in linguistics and curriculum development has informed her understanding of the diverse needs of learners ultimately shaping the innovative strategies presented in Daily Lesson Plans in English Griffin s personal commitment to fostering a love of language and literature is evident in her thoughtful approach to lesson planning ensuring that each plan is not only educational but also inspiring I wholeheartedly recommend Daily Lesson Plans in English to educators at all levels who strive to create a vibrant learning environment Griffin s insights and structured approach will empower teachers to effectively engage their students in meaningful language learning experiences making this book an essential addition to any educator s professional library The i5 Approach: Lesson Planning That Teaches Thinking and Fosters Innovation Jane E. Introduction to Conflict Resolution Sara Cobb,Sarah Federman,Alison Castel,2019-07-02 The field of conflict resolution has evolved dramatically during the relatively short duration of the discipline s existence Each generation of scholars has struggled with the major puzzles of their era providing theories and solutions that meet the needs of the time only to be pushed forward by new insights and at times totally upended by a changing world This introductory course text explores the genealogy of the field of conflict resolution by examining three different epochs of the field each one tied to the historical context and events of the day In each of these epochs scholars and practitioners worked to understand and address the conflicts that the world was facing at that time This book provides a framework that students will carry with them far into their careers enriching their contributions and strengthening their voices Rather than a didactic approach to the field students will develop their critical analytical skills through an inductive inquiry Students will broaden their vocabulary grapple with argumentation and develop critical reading skills

Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story Heather Ostman,Howard Tinberg,Danizete Martínez,2021-12-01 Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story explores the intersection between immigration and pedagogy via the narrative form Embedded in the contexts of both student writing and student reading of literature chapters by scholars from four year and two year colleges and universities across the country this book engages the topic of immigration within writing and literature courses as the site for extending critiquing and challenging assumptions about justice and equity while deepening students sense of ethics and humanity Each of the chapters recognizes the prevalence of immigrant students in writing classrooms across the United States including foreign born first and second generation Americans and more and the myriad opportunities and challenges those students present to their instructors These contributors have seen the validity in the stories and experiences these students bring to the classroom evidence of their lifetimes of complex learning in both academic and nonacademic settings Like thousands of college level instructors in the United States they have immigrant stories of their own The immigrant narrative offers a unique framework for knowledge production in which students and teachers may learn from each other in which the ordinary power dynamic of teacher and students begins to shift to enable empathy to emerge and to provide space for an authentic kind of pedagogy By engaging writing and literature teachers within and outside the classroom Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story speaks to the immigrant narrative as a viable frame for teaching writing an opportunity for building and articulating knowledge through academic discourse The book creates a platform for immigration as a writing and literary theme a framework for critical thinking and a foundation for significant social change and advocacy Contributors Tuli Chatterji Katie Daily Bruckner Libby Garland Silvia Giagnoni Sibylle Gruber John Havard Timothy Henderson Brennan Herring Lilian Mina Rachel Pate Emily Schnee Elizabeth Stone Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J.
