Practices in Children's Nursing E-Book Ethel Trigg, Toby Mohammed, Louise Ford, Hermione Montgomery, Vicky Vidler, 2010-06-17 The skills required by children s nurses are many and varied and are undertaken in a variety of settings Sick children are cared for at home in children s units and hospitals and sometimes in adult wards In addition children with disabilities may need nursing care while at special schools or in residential settings This book provides a clinical manual of common practices Each practice is research based and presented in a common format which covers Objectives Rationale Factors to note Guidelines Positioning Equipment Method Special observations and possible complications References and further reading The guidelines have been written specifically for children s nursing by contributors from well known children s units They are not simply adaptations from adult practices and therefore recognise the unique differences between adult and children s nursing The introductory section covers common concepts and infection control There is also a chapter on complementary therapies and an appendix on the use of play as a distraction All hospital and community nurses dealing with children whether at home in specialised units or in community settings will find the book of great practical help The common format of each practice makes the book easy to use and refer to in a clinical setting Each practice is based on the latest research to ensure it is evidence based and up to date Introductory chapters cover issues common to all practices to make the book easier to use The appendix on play reinforces its common usage as a distraction technique A chapter on complementary therapies explains these as they are becoming more widespread All practices have been reviewed by regional centres to avoid parochialism Content reorganised to reflect the Essential Skills Clusters from the NMC New chapter on communicating with children All chapters updated to reflect the current evidence base Equipment for Older Or Disabled People and the Law Michael Mandelstam,1997 This comprehensive book explains the provision both law and practice of equipment and home adaptations to assist older or disabled people in daily living Characterised by ill defined statutory responsibilities and terminology and an under developed consumer retail market the system of provision has long been recognised as chaotic and confusing for professionals and public alike This is despite the fact that equipment and adaptations are meant to be a central plank of community care Necessarily wide ranging but maintaining its focus the book aims critically to describe the system and thereby promote better practice By exploring boundaries and breaking points it will assist people to understand the law when things go wrong from negligence to judicial review and from contract to product safety legislation The range of items covered is great from alarms to artificial limbs baths to bedrooms chopping boards to crutches electronic toothbrushes to environmental controls hearing aids to hoists incontinence pads to ironing equipment rails to ramps speech aids to stairlifts and walking frames to wheelchairs Fundamentals of Operating Department Practice Ann Davey,Colin S. Ince,2000 This text is aimed at all non medical personnel training for the NVQ in Operating Department Practice Level 3 the aim of which is to train a non medical operating theatre worker to become competent in all of the professional aspects of operating
