Marines ,1991 Recruiters' Bulletin United States. Marine Corps,1917 The Recruiters' Bulletin ,1917 Where Youth and Laughter Go Seth William Bell Folsom,2015-09-15 Where Youth and Laughter Go completes LtCol Seth Folsom s recounting of his personal experiences in command over a decade of war It is the culminating chapter of a trilogy that began with The Highway War A Marine Company Commander in Iraq in 2006 and continued with In the Gray Area A Marine Advisor Team at War in 2010 The chronicle of Folsom s command of 3rd Battalion 7th Marine Regiment The Cutting Edge and his harrowing deployment to Afghanistan s volatile Sangin District presents a deeper look into the complexities and perils of modern counterinsurgency operations in America s longest war Charged with the daunting task of pacifying a region with a long history of violence and instability Folsom and his Marines struggled daily to wage a dynamic campaign against the shadowy enemy force that held Sangin s population firmly in its grip With peace and stability always teetering on the brink of collapse the Marines of The Cutting Edge confronted their own mortality as they conducted endless patrols through Sangin's minefields while fighting to win the hearts and minds of the Afghan villagers. No other books have been published from the perspective of a Marine infantry battalion commander in Afghanistan. It was Folsom's job as the unit commander to lead his Marines under impossible circumstances. LtCol Folsom made the unusual decision to patrol with his rifle squads every day through Sangin where his Marines dodged improvised explosive devices and sniper fire from an invisible enemy. As his tour progressed and casualties mounted, he found his objectivity evaporating and the love for his men growing. Where Youth and Laughter Go is more than a blood and guts war story; it is a jarring boots-on-the-ground level examination of the myriad challenges and personal dilemmas that today's young service members face as the United States approaches its final endgame in Afghanistan.

Marines Chester G. Hearn, 2007 1968 Michael Egbert, 2021-03-08 A gripping story about the friendships, the losses, the terrors, the struggles, and the horrors of war. Experience the good times, the laughs, as well as the bad and the grief. Gain a better understanding of what it is like to be a Vietnam veteran. Ride as a crew member on an aerial reconnaissance mission and experience what it is like to land on an aircraft carrier out at sea and then traipse into the unknown jungle on patrol. Meet characters you've never known before and then experience the loss when they are gone. This is a story that will have you on the edge of your seat one moment and laughter and relief at the next. Make their sacrifice a tribute by keeping their memory alive.

The Marine Leah Vale, 2014-10-15 He's An Officer When lawyer Lynn Hayes's career depends on keeping one of the long-lost McCoy heirs out of jail, she braces herself for a courtroom battle. But the defendant's rigid sense of duty is the first enemy she faces, followed quickly by her unyielding attraction to the man. And A Misguided Gentleman Major Rick Branigan's debt to his buddy shouldn't cost him his reputation, or so says the long-legged beauty sent by the McCoy clan to bring him home to Dependable Missouri. But when the U.S. Marine Corps is your family, you don't break their code of honor, even for a woman like Lynn Hayes. Do you?

Semper Fi with a Side of Donuts or Bacon Clair Learner, 2022-11-29 Semper Fi with a Side of Donuts or Bacon is a hybrid of fact and fiction. The story is set in 1989 Quantico, Virginia, from the perspective of Abe Rush, a woman Marine Corps captain. She is unexpectedly reassigned to train second lieutenants at the officers' Basic School, TBS, and the backbone of the story is her experiences instructing and, in many cases, suffering along with these newbies as they transition from commissioned civilians to Marine officers. This theme is largely biographical, based on the author's personal experiences. When Abe transferred from Okinawa to Quantico, she returned with more than uniforms and souvenirs. She unknowingly brought back the ghost of a World War II Marine gunnery sergeant. He has neither memory of his name nor where he was born, even how he died, but Abe and her friend Kelly, a Marine lawyer, assume he was killed at the Battle of Okinawa in 1945. While Kelly researches Marine Corps records, Abe subjects Gunny to TV shows that might jog his memory, though both Kelly's and Abe's efforts are largely unsuccessful. Gunny endures the programmed viewing and, despite Abe's intentions, becomes a TV junkie enamored with anything related to John Wayne or football or ALF. And he's particularly fond of donuts and bacon which he can't taste but can certainly smell Gunny's perspective on the roles of women particularly women in the military is obviously dated However his perceptions of female officers and women in general evolves and he gradually and grudgingly acknowledges their changed roles in the military and society almost fifty years after his death Gunny's name and history are eventually revealed but with a unique twist neither he nor Abe could have imagined

The Glass Marines Peter D'Alessio, 2012-04-28 Light years into deep space aboard an alien cargo freighter Marine Sergeant Christopher receives a bizarre order Make 185 Malacan aliens into United States Marines But the Malacans aliens are so alien Their culture psychology even physiology is so very very different What physical training standards do you use for a race that can do 200 push ups with breaking a sweat but can't do a single squat thrust Worse yet the Malacans are a passive and docile species with little or no sense of independence ambition or aggression But the Corps don't want sheep they want Marines With only three fellow Drill Instructors century old surplus weapons and equipment and just eighteen weeks for Boot Camp can Sergeant Christopher teach the meek and submissive aliens what it means to be one of the few and the proud

Marines Dodging Death Robert A. Simonsen, 2008-12-26 Most Marine and Navy Corpsmen who have seen active combat have at one time or another experienced a close call when they were seconds or perhaps inches from death yet survived because of a quick reaction divine intervention or just plain luck From Pearl Harbor to Baghdad this volume contains the stories of 62 Marines who narrowly escaped death while fighting in America's wars Inspired by the author's own close call in May 1968 it recounts a great variety of harrowing experiences Personal background from before and after the close calls provides a more human facet while additional research adds historical information to these fascinating stories of Marines and Navy Corpsmen

The Highway War Seth W. B. Folsom, 2011 The Highway War is the compelling Iraq War memoir of then Capt Seth Folsom commanding officer of Delta Company First Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion U S Marine Corps Mounted in eight wheeled LAVs light armored vehicles this unit of 130 Marines and sailors was one of the first into Iraq in March 2003 It fought on the front lines for the war's entire offensive phase from the Kuwaiti border through Baghdad to Tikrit Folsom's thoughtful account focuses on his maturation as a combat leader and as a human being enduring the austere conditions of combat and coming to terms with loss of life on both sides Moreover The Highway War is the story of a junior officer's relationships with his company's young Marines for whose lives he was responsible and with his superior officers Folsom covers numerous unusual military actions and conveys truthfully the pace stress excitement mistakes and confusion of modern ground warfare The Highway War is destined to be a Marine Corps classic
