Autobiography Mohandas Gandhi, 2012-04-18 Gandhi s simply narrated account of his boyhood legal studies purification and the growth of the Satyagraha nonviolent protest movement Critical inspiring work of the man responsible for the freedom of India Parliamentary Debates Victoria. Parliament, 1881 English as a Vocation Christopher Hilliard, 2012-05-31 English as a Vocation is a history of the most influential movement in modern British literary criticism F R Leavis and his collaborators on the Cambridge journal Scrutiny in the 1930s to the 1950s demonstrated compelling ways of reading modernist poetry Shakespeare and the texts of advertising Crucially they offered a way of teaching critical reading an approach that could be adapted for schools and adult education classes modelled in radio talks and paperback guides to English Literature and taken up in universities as far afield as Colombo and Sydney This book shows how a small critical school turned into a movement with an international reach It tracks down Leavis s students analysing the pattern of their social origins and subsequent careers in the context of twentieth century social change It shows how teachers transformed Scrutiny approaches as they tried to put them into practice in grammar and secondary modern schools And it explores the complex even contradictory politics of the movement Champions of creative writing and enemies of progressive education alike based their arguments on Scrutiny's interpretation of modern culture. Left Leavisites such as Raymond Williams, Richard Hoggart, and Stuart Hall wrought influential interpretations of social class and popular culture out of arguments with the Scrutiny tradition. This is the first book to examine major figures such as these alongside the hundreds of other teachers and writers in the movement whose names are obscure but who wrestled with the same challenges: how do you approach a baffling poem? How do you uncover what an advertisement is trying to do? How can literature inform our everyday experiences and judgements? What does culture mean in modern times? The Bewitching of Anne Gunter James Sharpe, 2012-11-12

In 1604, 20-year-old Anne Gunter was bewitched: she foamed at the mouth, contorted wildly in her bedchamber, went into trances. Her garters and bodices were perpetually unlacing themselves. Her signature symptom was to vomit pins, and she voided some pins downwards as well by her water or otherwise. Popular history at its best, The Bewitching of Anne Gunter opens a fascinating window onto the past. It's a tale of controlling fathers, willful daughters, nosy neighbors, power relations between peasants and gentry, and village life in early modern Europe. Above all, it's an original and revealing story of one young woman's experience with the greatly misunderstood phenomenon of witchcraft. James Sharpe is Professor of History at York University and the author of Instruments of Darkness: Witchcraft in Early Modern History and other works of social history. Focus on Assessment Eunice Eunhee Jang, 2014-04-04 Helps teachers understand research evidence in language assessment for students aged 5-18 and to develop an ability to design, implement, and critically evaluate language assessment with reference to language frameworks and standards for assessment in school education.
