Narratives of Matthew 1-2 Alistair N. Shaw, 2019-10-10 The first Gospel has traditionally been considered a very Jewish work. Recent scholarship has suggested some Hellenistic influence. The issue is explored in this work with attention focused on the dream narratives of the first two chapters. An investigation is carried out using a new methodology. The memory techniques used in an oral or semi-literate society are explored. A search is made for such techniques in Matthew, and these are then compared with similar devices in a wide range of literature: Old Testament, contemporary Jewish, Greek, and Roman. The intention is that literary practice should help to clarify the cultural setting in which Matthew functions. This is a work which will interest New Testament scholars with a focus on Gospel studies and oral transmission. It may also appeal to some classical scholars or those with a specialized interest in Josephus. Jewish Comics and Graphic Narratives Matt Reingold, 2022-11-17 The most up-to-date critical guide mapping the history, impact, key critical issues, and seminal texts of the genre. Jewish Comics and Graphic Narratives interrogates what makes a work a Jewish graphic narrative and explores the form's diverse facets to orient readers to the richness and complexity of Jewish graphic storytelling. Accessible but comprehensive and in an easy-to-navigate format, the book covers such topics as: The history of the genre in the US and Israel and its relationship to superheroes; Underground Comix and Jewish literature; Social and cultural discussions surrounding the legitimization of graphic representation as sites of trauma; understandings of gender, mixed media in Jewish graphic novels; and the study of these works in the classroom. Critical explorations of graphic narratives about the Holocaust, Israel, the diasporic experience, Judaism, and autobiography and memoir. The works of Will Eisner, Ilana Zeffren, James Sturm, Joann Sfar, JT Waldman, Michel Kichka, Sarah Glidden, Rutu Modan, and Art Spiegelman, and such narratives as X-Men, Anne Frank's Diary, and Maus. Jewish Comics and Graphic Novels includes an appendix of relevant works sorted by genre, a glossary of crucial critical terms, and close readings of key texts to help students and readers develop their understanding of the genre and pursue independent study. Navigator Fiction Yr 5/P6: Fire, Phantoms And Footie Teaching Guide, Answers to Your Biggest Questions About Teaching Middle and High School ELA Matthew Johnson, Matthew R. Resolving the Tension of Jesus's Mission in Matthew's Ancient Biography Jerry D. Breen,2024-10-03 Jerry D Breen argues that reading Matthew and all the Gospels as ancient biography is the necessary next step for Gospel studies In particular Breen contends that more specific comparisons should be made between the Gospels and ancient literature Breen stresses that this reading invites narrative critics to place more emphasis on examining the use of sources and the importance of intertextual and historical information that the author introduces to the text Breen places emphasis on the relationship between Jews and non Jews in ancient Galilee and Palestine and challenges the long supported theory that Jesus did not minister to non Jews beyond two or three exceptions

Demonstrating that Jesus is inclusive of everyone who comes to him even though he was sent primarily to the Jews Breen argues that the portrait which Matthew creates is one of a Jewish Messiah who is on a mission to restore Israel so that the restored people of God can bless the nations Concluding that rather than two conflicting missions the audience of the gospel is encouraged to view the healing of non Jews during Jesus s ministry as further proof that the Jewish Messiah is bringing restoration to Israel
