Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy, 2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them

Language Development and Social Integration of Students with English as an Additional Language Michael

Evans, Claudia Schneider, Madeleine Arnot, Linda Fisher, Karen Forbes, Yongcan Liu, Oakleigh Welply, 2020-07-16 Given the current context of the experience of migration on schools in England and Europe and the competing policies and approaches to social integration in schools there is a need to understand the connection between language development and social integration as a basis for promoting appropriate policies and practices This volume explores the complex relationship between language education and the social integration of newcomer migrant children in England through an in depth analysis of case studies from schools in the East of England The authors set this evidence against the background of policy debates in the wider international setting including a critical discussion of assumptions underlying national narratives of mainstreaming and assimilation In the light of an absence of national guidelines for appropriate practice in schools the authors outline a model of inclusive pedagogy for English as an additional language EAL and a framework of home school communication to promote effective EAL parental engagement in schools A University Education David

Willetts, 2017-11-17 Universities have a crucial role in the modern world In England entrance to universities is by nation wide competition which means English universities have an exceptional influence on schools a striking theme of the book This important book first investigates the university as an institution and then tracks the individual on their journey to and through university In A University Education David Willetts presents a compelling case for the ongoing importance of the university both as one of the great institutions of modern society and as a transformational experience for the individual The book also makes illuminating comparisons with higher education in other countries especially the US and Germany Drawing on his experience as UK Minister for Universities and Science from 2010 to 2014 the author offers a powerful account of the value of higher education and the case for more expansion He covers controversial issues in which he was involved from access for disadvantaged students to the introduction of 9 000 fees The final section addresses some of the big questions for the future such as the the relationship between universities and business especially in promoting innovation He argues that the two great contemporary trends of globalisation and technological innovation will both change the university significantly This is an authoritative account of English universities setting them for the first time in their new legal and regulatory framework Education in China and the World Niancai Liu, Zhuolin Feng, Qi Wang, 2024-01-01 This open access book provides a comprehensive overview of education in China covering 12 critical topics including basic education higher education professional education STEM Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics education mental health education and international education and excellence initiatives Drawing from current research theoretical literature and real life stories this book examines the developmental trajectories achievements and best practices in the above mentioned topics to reflect realities of education transformation in China It also incorporates a global comparison of key indicators to explore strengths of and gaps in Chinese education with its global counterparts Setting its context in an ever changing world this book intends to explore conceptual support to develop a modern education system with Chinese features and world
