Kowloon Tong A Novel Of Hong Kong:

Kowloon Tong Paul Theroux, 1998-07-06 In this moody thriller a family business is targeted for takeover as control of Hong Kong shifts from the British to the Chinese The New York Times Ninety nine years of colonial rule are ending as the British prepare to hand over Hong Kong to China Betty Mullard and her son Bunt have lived here for years mostly keeping apart from their foreign surroundings except for some indulgence in the local food or in Bunt's case the local girls The handover is not a concern for them until the mysterious Mr Hung from the mainland offers them a large sum for their family business They refuse But they fail to realize that Mr Hung is unlike the other Chinese people they've known he will accept no refusals When a young female employee whom Bunt has been dating vanishes he is forced to make important decisions for the first time in his life but his good intentions are pitted against the will of Mr Hung and the threat of the ultimate betrayal A compact provocative gem of a novel The Boston Globe from an award winning author acclaimed for both his fiction and his travel memoirs including Deep South The Great Railway Bazaar and The Mosquito Coast Kowloon Tong was praised by Bette Bao Lord in The Washington Post Book World as a taut illuminating story that transcends its timely subject

Kowloon Tong Paul Theroux, 1998 As 99 years of colonial rule end and the British prepare to hand over Hong Kong to China Betty Mullard and her son Bunt receive an offer for their family business which they decline from the mysterious Mr Hung What they don't realize however is that Mr Hung accepts no refusals

Kowloon Tong Paul Theroux, 1997 When Mr Hung offers Bunt a handsome sum for the family business he refuses him immediately Yet it soon grows clear that Mr Hung will accept no refusals Then a woman from Bunt's factory vanishes and he is forced for the first time in his life to make decisions that matter

Kowloon Tong Paul Theroux, 1999 Hong Kong Michael Ingham, 2007-06-18 Hong Kong has always been something of an anomaly and an outpost of empire whether British or Chinese Once described as a barren island the former fishing community has been transformed by its own economic miracle into one of Asia's World Cities taking in its stride the territory's 1997 return to Chinese sovereignty Beneath the surface of Hong Kong's clichéd self image as Pearl of the Orient and Shopping Paradise Michael Ingham reveals a city rich in history myth and cultural diversity

The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024 This volume describes both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia The chapters provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in the region

Hong Kong Michael Anthony Ingham, 2007 Explores the culture and history of Hong Kong

Sir Vidia's Shadow Paul Theroux, 2014-02-11 The acclaimed writer shares an intimate portrait of his former mentor V S Naipaul in this memoir of their thirty year friendship and sudden falling out Paul Theroux was a young aspiring writer when he met the legendary V S Naipaul in Uganda in 1966 There began a friendship that would span continents as both men ascended the ranks of literary stardom Naipaul's early encouragement of Theroux's talent had a profound impact on him yet

the apprenticeship was not always easy This heartfelt and revealing account of Theroux's thirty year friendship with Naipaul explores the unique effect each writer had on the other Built around exotic landscapes anecdotes that are revealing humorous and melancholy and three decades of mutual history this is a personal account of how one develops as a writer and how a friendship waxes and wanes between two men who have set themselves on the perilous journey of a writing life A New York Times Notable Book

My Hong Kong Malcolm Jack, 2022-07-29 How was Hong Kong perceived and described by writers from the 1950s during the last colonial period Was it a British city or was it Chinese The writers show how different life was for ex pats ensconced on the Peak and leading a glitzy lifestyle compared to refugees who came pouring into the colony from mainland China and lived in dire poverty in squatter camps Find out if that East and West ever mingled in My Hong Kong

Configurations of Migration Jennifer Leetsch, Frederike Middelhoff, Miriam Wallraven, 2023-10-24 In a global context in which phenomena of migration play an ever more important role the ways individual and collective experiences of migration are covered in the media represented in culture and interpreted are coming under increasing scrutiny This book explores the complex relationship between creative engagements with migration on the one hand and forms of knowledge about migration on the other inquiring into the ways aesthetic practices are intertwined with knowledge structures The book responds to three pressing research questions First it analyses how fictional texts plays images films and autobiographical accounts mediate forms of knowledge about migration Second it identifies the ways in which specific media approaches and aesthetic practices influence people's ideas about and awareness of migratory experiences in a globalized world Finally it delineates how historical perspectives help us compare epistemological approaches to migration in the nineteenth twentieth and early twenty first centuries and how these approaches affect the way critics and the public responded to and thought about different forms of forced migration Bringing together renowned scholars working across disciplines it investigates the possibilities and limitations that different media present when it comes to reflecting on communicating and imagining experiences of migration and how these representations in turn create ways of knowing and understanding migration

Blinding Light Paul Theroux, 2006-06 Explores creative genius and fame through the life of a writer whose search for a muse has led him into dangerous and destructive places

Dark Star Safari Paul Theroux, 2004 In his first new travel book in eight years the endearingly irascible Theroux takes readers the length of Africa by rattletrap bus dugout canoe cattle truck armed convoy ferry and train

The Mosquito Coast Paul Theroux, 2006 Disgusted with modern American culture Allie Fox takes his family to live in the jungles of Central America
