Data Privacy and Competition Law in the Age of Big Data Samson Y. Esayas,2024 Drawing insights from emergent properties and complexity science Samson Y Esayas examines the interplay between data privacy law and competition law to address challenges resulting from the commercialization of data Literacy Specialist, Fourth Edition Rita M. Bean,Virginia J. Goatley,2020-11-16 The definitive practitioner resource and text for developing excellence as a PreK 12 literacy reading specialist is now updated to reflect key changes in the field Delving into the literacy specialist s multiple leadership roles the book provides strategies for teaching children experiencing difficulty with reading and writing supporting teachers through coaching and professional learning opportunities designing curricula conducting assessments at the student classroom and school levels and building strong school family and community partnerships Pedagogical features include vignettes from exemplary practitioners questions for discussion and reflection follow up activities and ideas for instructors and workshop leaders Reproducible forms and worksheets can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 x 11 size Previous edition title The Reading Specialist Third Edition New to This Edition Broader view of literacy now encompasses reading writing oral language and digital and visual literacies Grounded in the International Literacy Association s updated Standards 2017 New or expanded discussions of multi tiered systems of support culturally responsive practice uses of technology in instruction and professional learning successful practices in middle and high school settings and coaching Extended case example that follows one literacy specialist through her entire first year in a school Appendix with website resources Step Up, Step Back Elsbeth Johnson,2020-02-20 Many strategic change efforts fail And virtually all of them are harder than they need to be Why is this And what can we do to make change more likely to stick Dr Elsbeth Johnson a former equity analyst and London Business School Professor now teaching at MIT has spent a decade researching how to deliver strategic change in practice Based on asking managers what they needed from leaders rather than just asking leaders what they did her resulting Step Up Step Back approach challenges some of our most fundamental beliefs about how to lead change and indeed about what we even consider to be leadership The Step Up Step Back approach suggests leaders need to step up and do more than they typically do in the early stages of the change in specific ways and at specific times and then step back and do less than they typically do in the later stages of the change again in specific ways at specific times The result is not only change that sticks but empowered motivated managers who can get on with delivering change without needing ongoing input or cover from leaders Using real world examples of how to apply the science in practice Step Up Step Back gives you a roadmap for how to deliver strategic change in your organization
