

English Language & Literature

2021-2023 Syllabus

General Overview:

The Language and Literature course at BIS is for students who are at fluency or near-fluency levels in English.

The overall course encourages students to examine a wide range of literary and non-literary texts in order to investigate how language shapes and is influenced by culture and identity, as well as how authors use it to construct meaning.

The IB gives us three Areas of Exploration:

- ✦ Readers, Writers, & Texts: Examines choices made by authors and how meaning is communicated.
- ✦ Time & Space: Examines how cultural contexts affect language, identity, and reception.
- ✦ Intertextuality: Examines the connections between and among literature, media, text and audience.

Final Assessments from 2021 onward:

| Assessment Title | Description                                                                                                           | Courses Required |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Paper 1          | A timed, handwritten analysis essay responding to a non-literary excerpt                                              | ENL, SL, & HL    |
| Paper 2          | A timed, handwritten analysis essay responding to a question about two literary works studied in class                | ENL, SL, & HL    |
| Individual Oral  | A timed, oral analysis essay presented in a 15 minute exam about a literary and non-literary excerpt studied in class | ENL, SL, & HL    |
| HL Essay         | A 1200-1500 word essay completed internally but externally assessed by an examiner.                                   | HL only          |

Other Course requirements:

In conjunction with both literary and non-literary texts studied, all students will also need to keep a Learning Portfolio.

The learner portfolio is a wonderful opportunity for your students to chart their growth and their learning over the two year Language and Literature course. It is meant to act as a tool to aid in their learning, but it's not only that. It's also a space for reflective and analytical thinking, creative and formal writing, spontaneous and studied readings of texts and works.
