Reconceptualizing English Education in a Multilingual Society Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2018-03-01 This book brings together chapters that describe, investigate and analyze the place of English in education in multilingual Philippines. Unlike most studies on languages in education which take a neutral de-contextualized stance, this volume takes a pluricentric view of the English language by positioning it in relation to its varieties as well as to other languages in the country. Because of the changing realities of English in the Philippines, traditional assumptions about the language as monolithic and unchanging as well as about how it should be taught and learned need to be revisited and re-conceptualized. Responses to the

'Arabellions' Tanja Börzel, Assem Dandashly, Thomas Risse, 2017-10-02 This book studies the reactions by external actors including the European Union to the events unfolding in the Arab world beginning in December 2010. In particular, contributors look at external actors' attempts to balance their desire for stability with their normative principles toward human rights and democracy. The book compares the action and inaction of the EU with other international and regional players including the United States, Russia, Turkey and Israel and assesses the response of these actors to the Arabellions events, analysing changes in their approaches to the Arab region. The contributions to this book answer three questions: 1. How have external actors assessed the Arabellions and what role did they see for themselves in this context? 2. Which goals and instruments did external actors pursue toward the MENA region? In particular, how did they deal with conflicting goals such as support for human rights and democracy on the one hand and concerns about security and stability on the other? 3. How can we explain the varying responses of external actors to the Arabellions? This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Integration. The Welsh Language Commissioner in Context Diarmait Mac Golla

Chrïost, 2016-07-20 It is the first book on the subject; much of the research data provides a unique insight to the development of government policy and is exclusive to this book. Several of the research results are quite striking and will be of great interest to academics and policy actors alike. International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot, 2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft. This at a time when issues of transnational media, the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse. Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia, author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft, hard, smart power projection and intercultural communication. He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia, examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period.

Negotiating the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Roland Popp, Liviu Horovitz, Andreas Wenger, 2016-10-04 This volume offers a critical historical assessment of the negotiation of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons.

NPT and of the origins of the nonproliferation regime The NPT has been signed by 190 states and was indefinitely extended in 1995 rendering it the most successful arms control treaty in history Nevertheless little is known about the motivations and strategic calculi of the various middle and small powers in regard to their ultimate decision to join the treaty despite its discriminatory nature While the NPT continues to be central to current nonproliferation efforts its underlying mechanisms remain under researched Based on newly declassified archival sources and using previously inaccessible evidence the contributors in this volume examine the underlying rationales of the specific positions taken by various states during the NPT negotiations Starting from a critical appraisal of our current knowledge of the genesis of the nonproliferation regime contributors from diverse national and disciplinary backgrounds focus on both European and non European states in order to enrich our understanding of how the global nuclear order came into being This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation Cold War history security studies and IR

The Emergence of Brand-Name Capitalism in Late Colonial India Douglas E. Haynes, 2022-09-22 This book examines the emergence of professional advertising in western India during the interwar period It explores the ways in which global manufacturers advanced a brand name capitalism among the Indian middle class by promoting the sale of global commodities during the 1920s and 1930s a time when advertising was first introduced in India as a profession and underwent critical transformations Analysing the cultural strategies both verbal and visual used by foreign businesses in their advertisements to capture urban consumers Haynes argues that the promoters of various commodities crystalized their campaigns around principles of modern conjugality He also highlights the limitations of brand name capitalism during this period examining both its inability to cultivate markets in the countryside or among the urban poor and its failure to secure middle class customers With numerous examples of illustrated advertisements taken from Indian newspapers the book discusses campaigns for male sex tonics and women s medicines hot drinks such as Ovaltine and Horlicks soaps such as Lifebuoy Lux and Sunlight cooking mediums such as Dalda and electrical household technologies By examining the formation of brand name capitalism and two key structures that accompanied it the advertising agency and the field of professional advertising this book sheds new light on the global consumer economy in interwar India and places developments in South Asia into a larger global history of consumer capitalism Local Content

Oil and Gas Law in Africa Pereowei Subai, 2019-01-10 Examining local content law and policy in the oil and gas industry this book uses Nigeria as a primary case study comparing its approach to countries such as Brazil and Norway which have also adopted local content laws in relation to their gas and oil industries In considering various aspects of local content law and policy as they apply to the oil and gas industry the book examines the factors behind the formulation of local content policies by petroleum producing states and the various strategies they have employed to implement them It analyses arguments against local content requirements from the perspective of international trade and investment law and from liberal market economic theorists who argue against its overall usefulness The book highlights salient aspects of the oil and gas industry such as regulation national oil companies treatment of minorities and policy formulation and implementation

Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya Donna J. Amoroso, 2014 Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya In this original and perceptive study Donna J Amoroso argues that the Malay elites preeminent position after the Second World War had much to do with how British colonialism reshaped old idioms and rituals helping to re invent a tradition In doing so she illuminates the ways that traditionalism reordered the Malay political world the nature of the state and the political economy of leadership In the postwar era traditionalism began to play a new role it became a weapon which the Malay aristocracy employed to resist British plans for a Malayan Union and to neutralise the challenge coming from groups representing a more radical democratic perspective and even hijacking their themes Leading this conservative struggle was Dato Onn bin Jaafar who not only successfully helped shape Malay opposition to the Malayan Union but was also instrumental in the creation of the United Malays National Organisation UMNO that eventually came to personify an acceptable Malay nationalism Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya is an important contribution to the history of colonial Malaya and more generally to the history of ideas in late colonial societies Book jacket
