

The birth of Jesus

Jesus Christ was born around 4-6 B.C. in Bethlehem and was known as "The Son of God".

Baptism of Jesus

Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist in the river Jordan near Bethany in the years A.D. 28/29.

Ministry and Performs Miracles

Jesus healed people with diseases, the leprosy, and the blind, and he was able to turn water into wine and walking on water, which drew many followers to his teaching during his public ministry.

The Last Supper

Jesus shared his body for all and blood before during the last supper before he was betrayed by Judas the next day.

Crucifixion of Jesus

Jesus was accused of blasphemy and sentenced to die on a cross. He carried the cross himself, while people followed him along the way. Eventually, he was nailed to the cross and left to die before being placed in a tomb.

Resurrection

Three days after Jesus died, the stone covering the tomb was moved, and his body was gone. This event, called the resurrection, is considered a miracle by Christians. According to the Bible, Jesus' death was a sacrifice for the sins of others, and his resurrection signifies the potential for spiritual renewal and salvation.

reconceptualization of early cinema To do so they highlight the latest methods and tools for analysis and cast new light on the experience of early cinema through the application of these concepts and methods The international host of contributors evaluate examples of early cinema across the globe including The May Irwin Kiss 1896 Un homme de t tes 1900 The Terrible Turkish Executioner 1904 and Tom Tom the Piper's Son 1905 In doing so they address the periodization of the era emphasizing the recent boon in the availability of primary materials the rise of digital technologies the developments in new cinema history and the persistence of some conceptualizations as key incentives for rethinking early cinema in theoretical and methodological terms They go on to highlight cutting edge approaches to the study of early cinema including the use of the Mediathread Platform the formation of new datasets with the help of digital technologies and exploring the early era in non western cultures Finally the contributors revisit early cinema audiences and exhibition contexts by investigating some of the earliest screenings in Denmark and the US exploring the details of black cinema going in Harlem and examining exhibition practices in Germany

The Light Shines Through Carole A. Wageman, 2017-03-01 The treasure trove of stories from Scripture provides wonderful examples of people encountering the mystery of God We read these stories over and over and know how they turn out year after year The one perspective we might miss however is that the characters in Scripture never knew how their story would turn out when they were living the unknown fear joy surprise and drama of the moment They faced the same uncertainty worry distraction and wonder that we face in light of life events that leave us breathless for hope and help We often fail to grasp how divine participation in the human story is actually what God's story is all about Our stories are God's story Personal narratives then and now seem to be the ways in which God works best as Scripture is transformed from static story to a conversation that informs our own modern dilemmas and uncertainties Today's reader can engage with ancient and familiar tales through the lens of pondering where God might be at work in our own lives as well As today's Church is in an unsettling transition today's spiritual seekers and those who have grown disenfranchised from or disillusioned with traditional spiritual approaches will find a fresh perspective that opens their own story to the overwhelming constancy of God's grace and love

The Bible's Answers to 100 of Life's Biggest Questions Norman L. Geisler, Jason Jimenez, 2015-01-13 Every believer has questions about God the Bible Jesus and the purpose and meaning of life The vexing problem is that so few believers are able to answer even the most basic ones Without answers doubt creeps in and the future of the church is in jeopardy With insight and precision Geisler and Jimenez address one hundred penetrating questions that the culture asks and Christians must be prepared to answer including both controversial questions raging in the public sphere and personal questions about family issues the purpose and meaning of life and the future of the world Christians from every walk of life especially young believers youth workers and parents will treasure this comprehensive resource Foreword by Josh and Sean McDowell

Unstuck Mark Jobe, 2014-07-15 One thing more than any other keeps us from a compelling life we are STUCK Some of us are stuck for short seasons of time But others surrender to a life of being continually trapped and frustrated The hang ups of our past fear of failure victim mindsets broken relationships disappointment with ourselves together with the lack of fresh encounters with God have left many of us struggling and unable to move into our next season Unstuck is a wake up call for all those tired of being stuck Organized around the most significant event of the prophet Elijah s life his cave experience Unstuck helps you discover what is holding you back from starting a new chapter of life Mark Jobe will help you address your unfinished business rediscover your boundaries break out of isolation and re envision your life story to step out of your cave and into your call Seeing Jesus in East Harlem José Humphreys,2018-10-09 Church leaders need to show up stay put and see what God is doing in their midst Pastor Jos Humphreys recognizes how deeply our faith is tied to our particular stories in our particular places Combining spiritual formation with activism vivid narrative with exhortation and realism with hopefulness Humphreys offers pastors and church planters a thoughtful look at discipleship in a complex world The Invisible World, My Values, Sin Kersten Hamilton, Ellen Larson, Linda Kondracki-Sibley,2000-03 Where can your 4th 5th and 6th graders go for answers Your 4th 5th and 6th graders are looking for a place of their own A place that gets beyond simple solutions pat answers and slogans A place that is filled with people who listen to them challenge them and support them as they follow God Your students are looking for their domain domain 456 will help your 4th 5th and 6th graders navigate through a sometimes confusing world It gives them a place to talk about the complex issues they face every day Issues like The Invisible World My Values and Sin And most importantly your students will find out what God and His Word say about these tough issues In this book you ll find three units for a total of 13 lessons over 20 reproducible activity sheets no student books to buy three reproducible parent newsletters to involve families in the topics being discussed Other books available in the domain 456 series Substance Abuse Communicating with Others Who Is Jesus Problems in Society Making Choices Friendship The Invisible World My Values Sin Peer Pressure Pain and Death Heroes Self Esteem Differences Authority Growing as a Christian School Leisure Time Families The Environment Sports and Competition Experiencing the Apocalypse at the Limits of Alterity Leif Hongisto,2010-08-18 Applying current narrative criticism to the study of the Apocalypse Hongisto underscores the oral nature of the narrative vis vis the roles of the readers listeners EXPERIENCING THE APOCALYPSE AT THE LIMITS OF ALTERITY probes the interplay of meaning creation as readers listeners encounter the narrative The author shows how readers listeners alike partake in the narrative design and become constructors of the narrative given their own life experiences Thus the overarching reading context assists in the creation of a narrativity for the text The form of the Apocalypse along with its imagistic quality convey a message that is not primarily cognitive but is delivered and grasped by a sense of alterity encompassing the imaginary world of the text and the real world of the readers listeners The Present Preacher Liz Shercliff, Matt Allen,2021-09-10 Good preaching depends on being attentive to God to the Bible to the congregation to the context to what influences and shapes the preacher This practical confidence building guide is for all who want to develop their preaching by homing in on that which points to God in the now Encouraging preachers in the ways that will make authentic connections with others it demonstrates that preaching in today s culture requires preachers to show up and be present in person rather than speak in role or act as religious spokespersons who take no responsibility for their message Based on the authors own training of ordinands it offers Insights on how to develop the habit of noticing God in the world Strategies for opening up and finding fresh meaning in familiar Bible texts Ways of understanding what influences your congregation and your own theology Sample sermons that embody these principles
