A Fair Deal on Talent - Fostering Just Migration Governance Bertelsmann Stiftung,2015-05-12 If well managed migration generates benefits for migrants their countries of origin and the countries they settle in For migrants it can help them expand their skill sets and improve their standard of living For destination countries it can alleviate demographic pressures and foster cultural diversity For origin countries it can bring benefits associated with remittances and knowledge transfers However in reality these benefits are rarely achieved as migration policy failures frequently lead to suboptimal or even negative outcomes Realizing the full potential of migration therefore demands we foster a paradigm shift toward the fair management of migration Fair migration is driven by the desire to achieve a triple win for migrants destination countries and origin countries In addition to outlining the key challenges and opportunities associated with fair migration this volume examines the good practices of a variety of countries and institutions which highlight aspects of fair migration The volume concludes with policy recommendations for effective and fair migration policymaking at the national and international levels As a conceptual and empirical contribution to both national and international debates on managing migration this volume aims to enrich discussions among policymakers business leaders civil society actors and scholars alike

Planning for the Caring City Claire Freeman,Etienne Nel,2024-04-29 As the world has become increasingly urbanised and planetary well being ever more threatened questions have emerged over just what the priorities should be for how we live in cities Clearly for many the current ways of planning and managing city environments are not working given so many of their human and non human inhabitants struggle on a daily basis to maintain their well being and survival Different approaches to city development are crucial if they are to be inclusive places where all can thrive Ensuring that cities are safe and sustainable and provide a level of care for all their residents places a significant mandate on those who manage cities and on planners in particular This book examines all the parts of the city where care needs to be incorporated how we plan create nurturing environments include all who live there build sensitively support meaningful livelihoods and enable compassionate governance With planners in mind this book examines why care is needed in the urban environment and drawing on real world examples examines how it can be applied in an effective and empowering fashion Banking on Equality Supriti Bezbaruah,2015-03-24 It may well be surprising to say that the world should look to India as a model of gender equality India s banking sector proves the exception with several women reaching the highest positions in India s top banks including the country s largest bank Based on interviews and surveys of bank employees in India s National Capital Region this book looks at what lies behind the media rhetoric and provides a systematic analysis of patterns of and responses to gender inequality in the banking sector in India The book uncovers how gender discrimination still persists in the banking sector albeit in covert forms Through a comparison of nationalized Indian private and foreign banks the book demonstrates how the impact of laws local cultural norms and gendered workplace practices are mediated through different organizational forms in these different types of banks to create varied experiences of gender inequality The book is one of the first books to provide a thorough in depth analysis of women s employment in the Indian banking sector currently an under researched area The Public Wealth of Cities Dag Detter,Stefan Folster,2017-07-18 How to leverage existing resources to meet the current and future needs of cities Crumbling streets and bridges Poorly performing schools and inadequate social services These are common complaints in cities which too often struggle just to keep the lights on much less make the long term investments necessary for future generations It doesn t have to be this way This book by two internationally recognized experts in public finance describes a new way of restoring economic vitality and financial stability to cities using steps that already have been proven remarkably successful The key is unlocking social human and economic wealth that cities already own but is out of sight or hidden A focus on existing public wealth helps to shift attention and resources from short term spending to longer term investments that can vastly raise the quality of life for many generations of urban residents A crucial first step is to understand a city s balance sheet too few cities comprehend how valuable a working tool this can be With this in hand taxpayers politicians and investors can better recognize the long term consequences of political decisions and make choices that mobilize real returns rather than rely on more taxes debt or austerity Another hidden asset is real estate Even poor cities own large swathes of poorly utilized land or they control underperforming utilities and other commercial assets Most cities could more than double their investments with smarter use of these commercial assets Managing the city s assets smartly through the authors proposed Urban Wealth Funds at arm s length from short term political influence will enable cities to ramp up much needed infrastructure investments

Everyday Border Struggles Thom Tyerman,2021-07-29 This book examines everyday borders in the UK and Calais as sites of ethical political struggle between segregation and solidarity In an age of mobility borders appear to be everywhere Encountered more and more in our everyday lives borders locally enact global divisions and inequalities of power wealth and identity Critically examining everyday borders in the UK and Calais Tyerman shows them to be sites of ethical political struggle From the Calais jungle to the UK s hostile environment it shows how borders are carried out through practices of everyday segregation that make life for some but not others unliveable At the same time it reveals the practices of everyday solidarity with which people on the move confront these segregating borders This book sheds light on the complex ways borders entrench themselves in our lives the complicity of ordinary people in their enactment and the seductive power they continue to assert over our political imaginations Of general interest to scholars and students working on issues of migration borders citizenship and security in international politics sociology and philosophy this book will also appeal to practitioners in areas of migrant rights asylum advocacy anti detention or deportation campaigning human rights direct democracy and community organising

An Introduction to Population Geographies Holly R. Barcus, Keith Halfacree, 2017-09-01 An Introduction to Population Geographies provides a foundation to the incredibly diverse topical and interesting field of twenty first century population geography It establishes the substantive concerns of the subdiscipline acknowledges the sheer diversity of its approaches key concepts and theories and engages with the resulting major areas of academic debate that stem from this richness Written in an accessible style and assuming little prior knowledge of topics covered yet drawing on a wide range of diverse academic literature the book s particular originality comes from its extended definition of population geography that locates it firmly within the multiple geographies of the life course Consequently issues such as childhood and adulthood family dynamics ageing everyday mobilities morbidity and differential ability assume a prominent place alongside the classic population geography triumvirate of births migrations and deaths This broader framing of the field allows the book to address more holistically aspects of lives across space often provided little attention in current textbooks Particular note is given to how these lives are shaped though hybrid social biological and individual arenas of differential life course experience By engaging with traditional quantitative perspectives and newer qualitative insights the authors engage students from the quantitative macro scale of population to the micro individual scale Aimed at higher level undergraduate and graduate students this introductory text provides a well developed pedagogy including case studies that illustrate theory concepts and issues

The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book s focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region s Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South Ethical Value Networks in International Trade Murray, Warwick E.,Overton, John,Howson, Kelle,2022-02-11 This forward looking book introduces the concept of Ethical Value Networks building upon a theoretical exploration with primary evidence of their impacts in the Global South It moves away from focusing on the consumption section of networks with grounded impact studies that explore ethicality as a concept how ethical value is created and how this is distributed through the socio economy Upsssc Uttar Pradesh Subordinate Services Selection Commission Pet (Preliminary Eligibility Test) Group-C Arpit Agrawal,2022-03-11 The Present Edition of UPSSSC PET GROUP C has been carefully prepared to serve as a Complete Study Guide Solved Papers for those aspirants who are preparing for UPSSSC PET Preliminary Eligibility Test Group C conducted by Uttar Pradesh Subordinate Services Selection Commission This book contains Solved Papers of 2022 2021 including Shift 1 2 The subjects are arranged exactly as per the latest syllabus and pattern to make it 100% convenient for the candidates This book gives you an idea of the questions asked in previous years exams and also what type of questions you should expect in the upcoming exam To summarize this book serves as an ideal revision source for all candidates who are aspiring for different posts in UPSSSC PET GROUP C such as Junior Assistant Stenographer Clerk Forest Guard Junior Engineer Lekhpal Boring Technician Computer Operator etc Topics to be covered Indian History Geography Indian Economy Indian Constitution Public Administration General Science Elementary Arithmetic Samanya Hindi General English Logic Reasoning General Awareness Graphs Tables Highlights of the book Analyzing the pattern of examination Practices Sets are a collection of useful exam questions Answers with explanations are available for all questions According to the prescribe syllabus and exam pattern Fair Trade and Organic Initiatives in Asian Agriculture Rie Makita,Tadasu Tsuruta,2017-03-16 In addition to constituting an evolving area of inquiry within the social sciences agricultural certification and particularly its Fair Trade and organic components has emerged as a significant tool for promoting rural development in the global South This book is unique for two reasons First in contrast to existing studies that have tended to examine Fair Trade and organic certification as independent systems the studies presented in this book reveal their joint application within actual production settings demonstrating the greater complexity entailed in these double certification systems through the generation of contradictions and tensions compared with single certification systems Second the authors who are both Asian reveal the realities of applying Fair Trade and organic certification systems within Asian agriculture In doing so they challenge the fact that most Fair Trade studies have been undertaken by Western scholars who have tended to focus on Latin American and African producers Drawing on a wealth of grounded case studies conducted in India Thailand and the Philippines this pioneering study on double certification makes a significant contribution to studies on Fair Trade and organic agriculture beyond Asia Patent Wars Thomas F. Cotter, 2018-06-01 Patents are ubiquitous in contemporary life Practically everything we use incorporates one or more patented inventions and recent years have witnessed epic disputes over such matters as the patenting of human genes the control of smartphone design and technology the marketing of patented drugs and the conduct of patent trolls accused of generating revenue from nuisance litigation But what exactly is a patent Why do governments grant them Can patents simultaneously encourage new invention while limiting monopoly and other abuses In Patent Wars Thomas Cotter one of America s leading patent law scholars offers an accessible lively and up to date examination of the current state of patent law showing how patents affect everything from the food we eat to the cars we drive to the devices that entertain and inform us Beginning with a general overview of patent law and litigation the book addresses such issues as the patentability of genes medical procedures software and business methods the impact of drug patents and international treaties on the price of health care trolls and the smartphone wars Taking into account both the benefits and costs that patents impose on society Cotter highlights the key issues in current debates and explores what still remains unknown about the effect of patents on innovation An essential one volume analysis of the topic Patent Wars explains why patent laws exist in the first place and how we can make the system better The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik, 2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union s Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective Articulations of Capital John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 2016-01-19 Articulations of Capital offers an accessible grounded yet theoretically sophisticated account of the geographies of global production networks value chains and regional development in post socialist Eastern and Central Europe Proposes a new theorization of global value chains as part of a conjunctural economic geography Develops a set of conceptual and theoretical arguments concerning the regional embeddedness of global production Draws on longitudinal empirical research from over 20 years in the Bulgarian and Slovakian apparel industries Makes a major intervention into the debate over the economic geographies of European integration and EU enlargement Mobilities in India Bhaswati Mondal, Gopa Samanta, 2021-07-26 This book presents commuting as a new paradigm in mobility studies in the context of global south It delves into suburban train commuting in Eastern India The book interprets commuting not only as a means to attend work but also as a process producing kinetic event space infused with different mobile practices which is not determined by their locational fixity rather can be cognized It analyses the role of suburban train commuting in the metropolitan expansion of Kolkata and the transformation of rural space into urban The significant contribution of the book lies in explaining commuters experiencescape and the production of spatial fluidity in time capsule through commuting It also explores the subjective reality of gendered commuting The book uses a trans disciplinary research design blending quantitative and ethnographic research methods The area selected for the empirical research is the Howrah Bardhaman Main Railway Line 108 km the first suburban railway line in Eastern India Commuters originating from three adjacent districts of Purba Bardhaman Hooghly and Howrah took part in this research Besides the commuters non commuting passengers and hawkers in the train were also interviewed to understand the diverse perceptions of the process of commuting This book may be considered as a reference book for mobility studies transport studies urban geography and regional planning
