

A detailed illustration of the rebuilding of Jerusalem's walls. In the foreground, numerous workers in traditional robes are engaged in construction tasks. Some are using tools like hammers and chisels on stone blocks, while others are moving materials with wheelbarrows or a small truck loaded with stone. The ground is cluttered with construction debris, including stone blocks, wooden planks, and large earthenware jars. A high, thick stone wall under construction forms a large rectangular enclosure. In the background, a city with a prominent blue-domed temple and other ancient buildings sits atop a hill. Two large cranes are visible on the hillside, one on the left and one on the right, suggesting a blend of ancient and modern construction techniques. The overall scene is one of active reconstruction and labor.
