because when you ride with the IGs the nights are even more dangerous than the days Excerpt Blade nodded to the parking lot outside There was another biker leaning against a bike and reading a porno magazine which I recognized as one we carried as one I peeked at occasionally when no one was around and when I was bored It was only then that I understood what was about to happen That was a marked man Blade was going to kill that man Wait at least two minutes before you call the cops all right darling he said his voice husky I nodded dumbly He winked at me and in a quick swift motion sliced through two of the buttons on my blouse letting my breasts tumble out revealing my flesh to him I blushed and tried as best I could to cover my cleavage That s a good look for you he growled You should thank me You ll sell more crap if you come to work dressed like that And with that he walked out of my store taking the cigarettes and the bear and leaving the snacks I watched as he approached the other biker This man was blonde heavily tattooed wearing a denim vest He was skinny and almost looked like he might be sickly He had a wispy blonde goatee and moustache that sickened me for some reason though I couldn t explain why Suddenly I knew that this man had to die I couldn t explain it at the time but I knew that Blade was right in killing this man that there would be justice here somewhere I didn t understand it but I wanted this man to die and I wanted Blade to do it
