Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today's metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson's canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment New Approaches to

Transcodification Massimo Fusillo, Doriana Legge, Mirko Lino, Mattia Petricola, Gianluigi Rossini, 2025-08-04 This collection aims to renew our perspective on adaptation and intermedial processes by thinking of them in terms of codes rather than media As a result the notion of transcodification emerges as a crucial tool in order to study the circulation of semiotic and aesthetic resources across disciplines knowledge systems and cultures Defined as the transfer of meaning making potential from one semiotic domain to another transcodification both includes and transcends intermediality thus dramatically expanding the scope and research potential of adaptation and intermedial studies The essays collected here apply this framework to an incredibly wide variety of objects and issues from the relationship between art and historiography to the
