Residential Construction Law Philip Britton, Matthew Bell, Deirdre Ní Fhloinn, Kim Vernau, 2021-07-15 This is the first book to offer a systematic and analytical overview of the legal framework for residential construction In doing so the book addresses two fundamental questions Prevention What assurances can the law give buyers and later owners and occupiers of homes that construction work from building of a complete home to adding an extension or replacing a shower unit will comply with minimum standards of design safety and build quality. What forms of redress from whom and by what route can residents expect when often long after completion of construction they discover defects? The resulting problems pose some big and difficult questions of principle and policy about standards, rights and remedies which in turn concern justice more generally. This book addresses these key issues in a comparative context across the United Kingdom, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand. It is an accessible guide to the existing law for residents and construction professionals and their legal advisers but also charts a course to further meaningful reforms of the legal landscape for residential construction around the world. The book's two co-authors, Philip Britton and Matthew Bell, have taught in the field in the UK, Australia and New Zealand; both have been active in legal practice as have the book's two specialist contributors, Deirdre Ní Fhlóinn and Kim Vernau. Foster on EU Law Nigel G. Foster, 2017. Nigel Foster provides a concise and clear explanation of EU law covering both institutional aspects and key substantive areas, offering an accessible entry point to the subject. Radio's Second Century John Allen Hendricks, 2020-03-13. Winner of the 2022 Broadcast Education Association Book Award. One of the first books to examine the status of broadcasting on its one hundredth anniversary, Radio's Second Century investigates both vanguard and perennial topics relevant to radio's past, present and future. As the radio industry enters its second century of existence, it continues to be a dominant mass medium with almost total listenership saturation despite rapid technological advancements that provide alternatives for consumers. Lasting influences such as on-air personalities, audience behavior, fan relationships and localism are analyzed as well as contemporary issues including social and digital media. Other essays examine the regulatory concerns that continue to exist for public radio, commercial radio and community radio and discuss the hindrances and challenges posed by government regulation with an emphasis on both American and international perspectives. Radio's impact on cultural hegemony through creative programming content in the areas of religion, ethnic inclusivity and gender parity is also explored. Taken together, this volume compromises a meaningful insight into the broadcast industry's continuing power to inform and entertain listeners around the world via its oldest mass medium, radio. Conveyancing Handbook Frances Silverman, 2017-09-04. The Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook presents the latest guidance in residential conveyancing and is a crucial resource for answering queries arising from day to day transactions. It is revised annually by a team of experts directed by an editorial board and edited by Frances Silverman. The 24th edition includes a new chapter on conveyancing of shared ownership property, a new chapter on Annual Tax on Enveloped Dwellings (ATED), the new third edition of the Standard Commercial Property Conditions, the Law Society's Model Property Report and Consumer Lease Report. A Family Matter Megan Gaucher, 2018-05-15. How do we define family? In an attempt to police incoming migrants, the Harper government adopted a strict definition of family to limit access to citizenship for certain immigrants. Even when immigrants had no intention of sponsoring family members, their familial networks affected their entry to Canada, resulting in differentiated treatment of families living within and beyond Canadian borders. Megan Gaucher analyzes the government's assessment of sexual minority refugee claimants relationship history and common law and married spousal sponsorship applications and its crackdown on marriage fraud concluding that this narrative of citizenship reinforces racialized gendered and sexualized assumptions about the Canadian family As many Western governments ponder more restrictive immigration policies A Family Matter offers a timely examination of family formation as a factor in both granting and refusing citizenship This important work proposes a course for re evaluating how family is defined and for implementing more just assessments of immigrants and refugees Our Social World Jeanne H. Sergi,Cole C. Scanlon,Luke R. I. Heine,2021-08-02 Social entrepreneurship is revolutionizing the way societal challenges are being approached and solved Instead of waiting for government or big business to take action individuals across the world are developing and implementing innovative effective and sustainable solutions to some of our most pressing social and environmental challenges Reframing Police Education and Freedom in America Martin Alan Greenberg,Beth Allen Easterling,2023-09-15 This book untangles the components of police education and advocates a robust community based training model with significant civilian oversight The recommended approach recognizes that the citizenry needs to be included in the provision of basic police education for it is they who must both support and be served by their police The police must be role models for society demonstrating that freedom and rights come with obligations both to the community as a whole and to individuals in need within that community Ultimately the quality of police training and the public s safety depend not only on the leadership of police executives as well as the quality of educational institutions and police candidates but also on the building of a community s trust in its police The issues of police recruitment education and retention have greater consequence in an era when protests and other signs of negativity surround law enforcement Several incidents including most notably George Floyd s murder by police have sparked new training initiatives regarding police de escalation and community engagement At the same time the proliferation of gun violence and a contentious political climate have led some officers to refrain from undertaking proactive types of policing In this context reform of the police education system is urgent This book examines police training at all levels of government local regional state and federal In addition citizen participation programs including the role of the media and programs for furthering law related education LRE are highlighted The proposed police education model recognizes that ordinary members of the American public need to contribute to the provision of basic police education for it is they who must both support and be served by their police The focus is on teaching a guardian style of policing at the local level Police education would combine higher education necessary practical proficiencies and intensive field experiences through a gradual level of greater responsibility likely extending over a 2 plus year period for trainees with less than a year of previous college credits This book will be of interest to a wide range of audiences such as law enforcement professionals and trainers including those in executive development programs in police departments community leaders scholars and policy experts who specialize in policing concerned citizens and students of criminal justice especially those interested in police organization and management criminal justice policy and the historical development of police
