Science, Technology, and Society David D. Kumar,Daryl E. Chubin,2012-12-06 David D Kumar and Daryl E Chubin We live in an information age Technology abounds information tech nology communication technology learning technology As a once popular song went Something s happening here but it s just not exactly clear The world appears to be a smaller less remote place We live in it but we are not necessarily closely tied to it We lack a satisfactory understanding of it So we are left with a paradox In an information age information alone will neither inform nor improve us as citizens nor our democracy society or in stitutions No improvement will take some effort It is a heavy burden to be reflective indeed analytical and disciplined but only constructively constrained by different perspectives The science based technology that makes for the complexity contro versy and uncertainty of life sows the seeds of understanding in Science Technology and Society STS as it is known encompasses a hybrid area of scholarship now nearly three decades old As D R Sarewitz a former geologist now congressional staffer and an author put it After all the important and often controversial policy dilemmas posed by issues such as nuclear energy toxic waste disposal global climate change or biotech nology cannot be resolved by authoritative scientific knowledge instead they must involve a balancing of technical considerations with other criteria that are explicitly nonscientific ethics esthetics equity ideology Trade offs must be made in light of inevitable uncertainties Sarewitz 1996 p 182

Holt Environmental Science Arms,1996-01-01 Our environmental problems are huge and they require careful attention and action The twenty first century will be a crucial time in human history a time when we must find solutions that allow people on all parts of our planet to live in a clean healthy environment and have the resources they need for a good life p 5      Books in Print Supplement ,2002      Resources in Education ,1985      Holt Biology Rob DeSalle,Holt Rinehart and Winston,2008 Holt Biology Student Edition 2008      An Assessment of Natural Hazards and Disasters in Canada David Etkin,C.E. Haque,Gregory R. Brooks,2003-04-30 The problems and issues of natural hazards and disasters both globally and in Canada are becoming increasingly important since the costs of extreme natural events have been escalating and significant vulnerabilities exist in Canadian society Without thoughtful and effective mitigation these costs and human suffering are likely to continue to increase An assessment of knowledge research and practice in risk hazards and disasters fields is a fundamental step towards the goal of prevention and mitigation This book on natural hazards and disasters in Canada is the first comprehensive interdisciplinary publication on this subject and is the result of a national assessment on this topic A variety of papers from the physical and social sciences explores both the risks associated with these hazards and adaptive strategies that can be used to reduce those risks Audience This excellent collection of papers is intended for academics professionals and practitioners involved in hazard reduction activities who wish to obtain a better understanding of Canadian natural hazards      Skills Workshop Steven G. Darian,2002      Agriculture's Ethical Horizon Robert L

Zimdahl,2012-01-30 The second edition of Agriculture's Ethical Horizon is a carefully considered application of philosophical concepts such as utilitarianism and positivism to the practice of agricultural science Author Robert Zimdahl argues for an approach to agriculture guided by foundational values and addresses the questions What are the goals of agricultural and weed science What should their goals be How do and how should the practitioners of agriculture address complex ethical questions This book engages students researchers and professionals across disciplines including horticulture soil and plant science entomology and more all without requiring a background in philosophy It examines topics such as scientific truth and myth moral confidence in agriculture the relevance of ethics to sustainability and biotechnology New to this edition is a chapter examining the raising housing and slaughter of animals for human food and a chapter on alternative and organic agricultural systems Easily understood by non philosophers Chapter sidebars highlight important concepts and can be used to engage students in further discussion Companion website includes further teaching aids and a discussion board
