

The Great Gatsby

Chapter 1 Study Guide ANSWERS

1. What is Nick Carraway?

The Narrator, Daisy's cousin, Tom's old Yale classmate, Jordan's love interest, Gatsby's neighbor

2. Nick says, "I'm inclined to reserve all judgments," and he claims it's a matter of what? (p. 2)

Infinite hope

3. Gatsby had a "distorted sensitivity to" what? (p. 2)

The promise of life.

Write this quote and be ready to talk about it on the next (p. 2):

"It was a readiness such as I have never found in any other person and which it is not likely I shall ever find again. No—Gatsby turned out all right in the end; it is what proved on Gatsby, what soul that flowered in the wake of his dream that temporarily closed out my interest in the abstruse sorrows and short-sighted elations of men."

4. How did Nick find his house? (p. 3)

A young man at his office suggested that they take a house together in a commuting town, but at the last minute their firm ordered him to Washington, so Nick went to the country alone.

5. Where did Nick live and who was his neighbor? (p. 3)

West Egg (New Money) and Jay Gatsby

6. How does Nick know Daisy? How does he know Tom? (p. 3)

Daisy is Nick's second cousin once removed. Nick knew Tom from college.

7. Describe the Buchanan's' house. (p. 4)

It was even more elaborate than Nick expected. It was a cheerful red-and-white Georgian Colonial mansion that overlooked the bay. The lawn started at the beach and ran toward the front door for a quarter of a mile, jumping over sun-dials and brickwalks and burning gardens. It had French windows.

8. What is the first question Daisy asks Nick? (p. 4)

"Do they miss me?"

9. Every year Daisy waits for something, but what is it. What is it? (p. 4)

The longest day of the year.

10. Tom is reading a scientific book. What is it and who wrote it? (p. 12-13)

Writing and Learning in Cross-national Perspective David Foster, 2017-10-03 Despite the increasingly global implications of conversations about writing and learning U S composition studies has devoted little attention to cross national perspectives on student writing and its roles in wider cultural contexts Caught up in our own concerns about how U S students make the transition as writers from secondary school to postsecondary education we often overlook the fact that students around the world are undergoing the same evolution How do the students in China England France Germany Kenya or South Africa the educational systems represented in this collection write their way into the communities of their chosen disciplines How for instance do students whose mother tongue is not the language of instruction cope with the demands of academic and discipline specific writing And in what ways is U S students development as academic writers similar to or different from that of students in other countries With this collection editors David Foster and David R Russell broaden the discussion about the role of writing in various educational systems and cultures Students development as academic writers raises issues of student authorship and agency as well as larger issues of educational access institutional power relations system goals and students roles in society The contributors to this collection discuss selected writing purposes and forms characteristic of a specific national education system describe students agency as writers and identify contextual factors social economic linguistic cultural that shape institutional responses to writing development In discussions that bookend these studies of different educational structures the editors compare U S postsecondary writing practices and pedagogies with those in other national systems and suggest new perspectives for cross national study of learning writing issues important to all educational systems Given the worldwide increase in students entering higher education and the endless need for effective writing across disciplines and nations the insights offered here and the call for further studies are especially welcome and timely
