Sample Key - Topic: Ratifying the Constitution

Task

Paragraph 1:

Prior to the writing of these two documents, the colonists won the American Revolution. In winning this war they strived to establish a government that was beneficial to themselves - A government which allowed them independence while also protecting their rights. In moving towards this goal, the founders wrote the Articles of Confederation which proved itself to be weak and unsuitable. However, it was purposely and intentionally weak in order to prevent a monarchy system similar to that of the British monarchy, from which they just revolted against. This caused the Americans to hold a constitutional convention in Philadelphia, PA. The intent was simply to improve the Articles of Confederation. During the convention, however, the Articles of Confederation further

Various ways to approach Paragraph 2. These are just ideas of sentence starters, you need to be sure to go into greater detail on the actual SEQ.

- Option 1: The relationship between these two documents is that they both represent turning points in history. A turning point is an event that marks a big, important change. The beginning of the Federalist & Anti-Federalists happened because of the ratification of the Constitution. The Constitution was written because The Articles of Confederation were weak and failed.
- Option 2: A similarity between these documents is that both groups represented, Federalists and Antifederalists, desire to improve society by changing their government.
- Option 3: A difference between Document 1 and 2 is that these groups do not agree on how best to create a government that both protects and acknowledges the rights of the citizens.
- Option 4: The establishment of the Federalist and Anti-Federalist groups represents a turning point in American history. This was a pivotal time period in which Americans wanted to establish their independence by creating a government that was both strong and powerful without being a threat to democracy.
