Les Places Et Les Chances Repenser La Justice Sociale:

PLACES ET LES CHANCES. REPENSER LA JUSTICE SOCIALE (LES)., 2010

Les places et les chances François

Dubet, 2010 Il y a deux manières de concevoir la justice sociale La première l'égalité des places vise à réduire les inégalités entre les différentes positions sociales La seconde l'égalité des chances cherche à permettre aux individus d'atteindre les meilleures positions au terme d'une compétition quitable Aujourd'hui en France comme ailleurs cette dernière conception tend à devenir hégémonique Mais si elle répond au désir d'autonomie des individus l'égalité des chances s'accommode de l'existence et même du développement des inégalités Contre l'air du temps François Dubet plaide en faveur du modèle des places celui-ci combat résolument les inégalités et accroît la cohésion de la société En montrant comment on peut promouvoir la justice sociale sans tout sacrifier la compétition méritocratique ce brillant essai ouvre la reconstruction intellectuelle de la gauche Where Has Social Justice Gone? Emmanuelle Barozet, Ivan Sainsaulieu, Régis Cortesero, David Mélo, 2022-07-01 This book uses survey data in hot spots around the globe to analyse various models of social justice particularly the principle of equality from a pragmatic perspective Starting with ordinary actors social movements and concrete contexts the authors question foundations of social and political democracy in our times They focus on how social actors deal with the principles of justice and judgments of justice at work and in their social lives The book suggests that the increase in social inequalities in recent decades contrasts with the blurring of the aims of social justice At a time when the reconsideration of politics largely depends on its relevance to and aspirations for social justice the authors of this book question contemporary developments by illustrating its variety according to specific historical institutional social and organizational contexts The book will be useful to students and scholars in the social sciences especially those interested in moral questions regarding social justice from an empirical and practical point of view Multicultural Challenges and Sustainable Democracy in Europe and East Asia N. Kim, 2014-10-29 This collection examines the current stage of multicultural challenges and their influence on democracy in 12 countries of Europe and East Asia Contributors draw out the differences between European and East Asian approaches to universalizing locality and localizing global norms regarding human rights and democratic individuality

Identity, Justice and Resistance in the Neoliberal City Gülçin Erdi, Yıldırım Şentürk, 2017-08-31 This book details the current neoliberal restructuring of cities and its impact on the rise and spread of resistance and uprisings in different cities throughout the world Through close ethnographic study the authors illuminate the strategies adopted for everyday life that have evolved in response to the neoliberal managing of cities by which the city is shaped by market forces rather than by the needs of its inhabitants In the light of many urban movements uprisings and forms of resistance observed in such diverse countries as Brazil Turkey the USA Greece and Spain since the Arab uprising of 2011 this collection makes an original contribution to urban sociology and social geography by developing a spatial approach to understanding how the city shapes identities and perceptions of justice This innovative volume will be of interest to readers across the social sciences

New Social Mobility Jens

Schneider, Maurice Crul, Andreas Pott, 2022-06-28 This open access book comparatively analyses intergenerational social mobility in immigrant families in Europe It is based on qualitative in depth research into several hundred biographies and professional trajectories of young people with an immigrant working class background who made it into high prestige professions The biographies were collected and analysed by a consortium of researchers in nine European countries from Norway to Spain Through these analyses the book explores the possibilities of cross country comparisons of how trajectories are related to different institutional arrangements at the national and local level The analysis uncovers the interaction effects between structural institutional settings and specific individual achievements and family backgrounds and how these individuals responded to and navigated successfully through sector specific pathways into high skilled professions such as becoming a lawyer or a teacher By this it also explains why these trajectories of professional success and upward mobility have been so exceptional in the second generation of working class origins and it tells us a lot also about exclusion mechanisms that marked the school and professional careers of children of immigrants who went to school in the 1970s to 2000s in Europe and still do

The Oxford Handbook of Education and Globalization Paola Mattei, Xavier Dumay, Eric Mangez, Jacqueline Behrend, 2023 The Oxford Handbook on Education and Globalization brings together in a unique way leading authors in social theory and in political science and reflects on how these two disciplines deal with the relation between globalization and education The handbook develops a firmer and tighter dialogue between social theory and education research and analyzes the political and institutional factors that shape the adoption of global reforms in education at multiple levels of governance It is a must read for anyone looking for a comprehensive overview of how globalization and education interact to result in distinct and varying outcomes across world regions Pedagogic Rights and Democratic Education Philippe Vitale, Beryl Exley, 2015-07-24 The basis of Bernstein's sociology of education lays in his theorisation of the different approaches to curriculum pedagogy and assessment and the implications for pedagogic rights and social justice This edited collection presents 15 empirical case studies and theoretical accounts from 22 international scholars who focus on the experiences of students and teachers in contexts marked by economic social cultural linguistic and or geographic diversity Located in systems of education in Australia France Germany Greece Portugal South Africa and the United States each chapter contributes to a better understanding of the conditions of a democratic education across time and place

Applying International and European Anti-Discrimination Law to the Housing Context Juan Carlos Benito Sanchez, 2023-10-05 This is the first study of anti discrimination law as it applies to housing law in Europe It offers an important perspective in a field dominated by employment law studies while drawing on concepts significant in that field as well Legislative discussion looks at EU law the European Convention on Human Rights the European Social Charter and related case law The book goes further to examine United Nations human rights instruments and related practice of UN committees This unique focus allows for a fuller understanding of anti discrimination law's implications potential and challenges Young Migrants and Plurilingualism in Schools Fiona Smythe, 2024-10-14 In many parts of the world there is a growing interest in how existing linguistic knowledge is involved in the acquisition of further languages in particular how learning the language of schooling can be improved through inclusion of students home languages This theme gathers around it a rich international network of multilingual researchers interested in promoting the benefits of bilingual and plurilingual education the recognition of linguistic and cultural diversity in schools and strategies for supporting young migrants to succeed in schools Young Migrants and Plurilingualism in Schools A Comparative Study of Language Diversity within Education Systems in France and Aotearoa New Zealand presents findings from the author's Ph D study carried out during 2017-2019 with young migrants and their teachers in France and New Zealand These findings provide evidence for plurilingual learning spaces as improving student participation interaction sense of wellbeing and social cohesion all elements of democratic coexistence in culturally and linguistically diverse societies Cultural, Training and Educational Spaces Theodora Balmon, Bruno Garnier, 2024-01-04 For two centuries the school system has been a central point around which other players have gravitated local authorities voluntary organizations and the world of work Over the course of the 20th century this school centric configuration underwent a transformation with local authorities tending to become integrated into the vertical culture of the school system This was only the beginning of a process that brought schools and socio cultural players into constant contact Cultural Training and Educational Spaces first examines the relationships with knowledge generated by the links between the school system and other cultural training and educational spaces taking a historical pedagogical and philosophical perspective Easy access to learning materials creates different relationships with knowledge than those observed in schools The book then looks at the pedagogical practices in these different cultural educational spaces such as libraries and media libraries museums and historical sites places of heritage history and entertainment social networks and other multimedia formats Social (In)equality, Community Well-being and Quality of Life Patsy Kraeger, M.
