My Cave Life in Vicksburg Loughborough M a Webster,2020-03-05 It has been said that the peasants of the Campagna in their semi annual visits to the Pontine marshes arrive piping and dancing but it is seldom they return in the same merry mood the malaria fever being sure to affect them more or less Although I did not leave Jackson on the night of the 15th piping and dancing yet it was with a very happy heart and very little foreboding of evil that I set off with a party of friends for a pleasant visit to Vicksburg Like the peasants I returned more serious and with a dismal experience How little do we know with what rapidity our feelings may change We had been planning a visit to Vicksburg for some weeks and anticipating pleasure in meeting our friends How gladly in a few days we left it with the explosions of bombs still sounding in our ears How beautiful was this evening the sun glowed and warmed into mellow tints over the rough forest trees over the long moss that swung in slow and stately dignity like old time dancers scorning the quick and tripping movements of the present day Glowing and warming over all this evening sun this mellow pleasant light breaking in warm tints over the rugged ground of the plantation showed us the home scenes as we passed the sober and motherly cows going home for the evening s milking through the long lanes between the fields where the fences threw shadows across the road

making strange weird figures of the young colts shadows lean and longlimbed and distorted the mothers tired of eating the grass that grew so profusely were standing in quiet contentment or drank from the clear runs of water And so we passed on by the houses where the planter sat on his veranda listening to the voice of his daughter reading the latest paper while round her fair head like a halo the lingering beams of the sun played My Cave Life in Vicksburg ,2017-10-17 Excerpt from My Cave Life in Vicksburg With Letters of Trial and Travel And on to Black River Big Black with its slow sluggish tide 1 Dark like the Stygian stream it owed in the mist of the evening the twilight And soon we see Vicksburg classic ground for ever in America The Hudson must now yield the palm to the Father of Waters Our interest will centre around spots hallowed by the deeds of our countrymen I had thought during the first bombardment of Vicksburg that the town must have been a ruin yet very little damage has been done though very few houses are without evidence of the first trial of metal One I saw with a hole through the window behind was one of corresponding size through the panel of the door which happened to be open The corner of the piano had been taken Off and on through the wall the shot passed one also passed through another house making a huge gap through the chimney And yet the inhabitants live in their homes those who have not lost some loved one happy and content ed not knowing what moment the house may be rent over their heads by the explosion of a shell About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
