Joan Broadhurst Dixon, Eric Cassidy, 2005-07-20 Virtual Futures explores the ideas that the future lies in its ability to articulate the consequences of an increasingly synthetic and virtual world. New technologies like cyberspace, the internet, and Chaos theory are often discussed in the context of technology and its potential to liberate or in terms of technophobia. This collection examines both these ideas while also charting a new and controversial route through contemporary discourses on technology, a path that discusses the material evolution and the erotic relation between humans and machines. Virtual Futures brings together diverse fields such as cyberfeminism, materialist philosophy, postmodern fiction, computing culture, and performance art with essays by Sadie Plant, Stelarc, and Manuel de Landa to name a few. The collection heralds the death of humanism and the rise of posthuman pragmatism. The contested zone of debate throughout these essays is the notion of the posthuman or the possibility of the cyborg as the free human. Viewed by some writers as a threat to human life and humanism itself, others in the collection describe the posthuman as a critical perspective that anticipates the next step in evolution: the integration or synthesis of humans and machines, organic life and technology. This view of technology and information is heavily influenced by Anglo-American literature, especially cyberpunk, Pynchon, and Ballard, as well as the materialist philosophies of Freud, Deleuze, and Haraway. Virtual Futures provides analyses by both established theorists and the most innovative new voices working in conjunction between the arts and contemporary technology.

Joy that Lasts Gary Smalley, Al Janssen, 2009-08-30 Discover what it means to truly trust God and how a deep relationship with him can bring life and joy into marriage. Renowned family counselor, seminar speaker, and author Gary Smalley gives insight into five truths that can transform marriage. Sharing openly from his own relationship with his wife Norma, Gary shows why both husbands and wives need an independent energy source to recharge their spiritual batteries. Someone each can talk to about anything and at any time. An understanding of their emotions and what they mean. Reassurance that their trials have meaning. A shared mission they can strive for together.

Adopted Country, Adopted Son Frank Hubbit, 2014-10-17 It is no easy task to adopt a child, especially across different races, nor is it easy to be adopted. Jake and Nkanyiso have to work much harder than either of them probably expected to become a family of two. Just as they are becoming settled after some trials, Nkanyiso informs his adopted father that a male teacher has been sexually harassing him at school. Jake does his best to protect his adopted son, but neither of them is really prepared for the onslaught when Jake complains to the school. Each of them has to deal with the other's different world view. Jake's respect for Zulu customs does not extend to funding Nkanyiso's mother's training to become an isangoma; money is too tight. Nkanyiso wants to believe that no spirit can harm him, as Jake says, but the dark sorcerer hounds him continually, and he starts to despair. It is a story of bad things happening to ordinary people. An adopted father and an adopted son against the background of a country still coming to terms with democracy.

The National Magazine, 1923 How and why Children Hate Ved P. Varma, 1993-01-01 We all hate from time to time, but children hate more than adults. The contributors to this book discuss how to recognise and handle hatred in a practical way. Their different perspectives enable the reader to obtain a comprehensive picture of available models and management approaches to children's primitive hatred      The Saturday Evening Post, 1929      Action! Sandra Rae Gordon, 2002 Applause Books A life in the movies has been an American dream for a century. Many people dream of becoming Hollywood professionals but either aim too high by trying to produce their own feature film or too low by hanging around restaurants frequented by movie stars and end up frustrated. Wouldn't it be great if someone who knew what to do, someone who had achieved acclaim in the field, would walk us through the steps to success? At last here is a book by a seasoned movie and television professional, Emmy winner Sandra Gordon, that is filled with practical yet highly effective ways to build a career in entertainment. Gordon calls upon her own experience working on the television series PARTY OF FIVE, the movie RUDY and many more. There are many books that teach job seekers how to write resumes or ace interviews but not many books like ACTION! Uniquely designed for individuals who are interested in a career in the entertainment industry, whether they are recent college graduates or middle-aged career changers, ACTION! takes the formula out of the job hunting book to the next step, telling its readers not only how to write their resumes but where to send them, how to keep their jobs once they are hired, and how to advance in their career.

A Literary Cavalcade-VI Robert A. Parker, 2013-08-12 For six decades writer and editor Robert A. Parker has followed up each book he reads mainly novels with an evaluation of that book. His comments are informed by his Jesuit upbringing but also by an independent critical view that balances a moral and literary sensibility. In this sixth of six volumes the authors covered range from Ignazio Silone to Emile Zola. They include Solzhenitsyn, Spark, Stegner, Styron, Tanizaki, Tolstoy, Twain, Unsworth, Updike, Vargas Llosa, Warren, Waugh, and Wilder. The commentaries are listed alphabetically by author and the books by the date of publication. At least 115 authors are included in this volume, some represented by one book, some by five or more. The writers here represent a broad range of writing styles, cultural influences, and moral philosophies. And all are rated on their literary achievement, on plot, character, and setting, plus the moral, ethical, and spiritual values of mankind. Here the meaning of literature is measured against the meaning of life.      Movie Ratings and the Independent Producer United States. Congress. House. Committee on Small Business. Subcommittee on Special Small Business Problems, 1977
