The Proud Oak

Once upon a time, in a beautiful forest, there stood a large, old oak tree. He was the proudest tree in the forest. He was so big and strong that he could shade a whole village. He was so old that he had seen many things. He was so wise that he knew the secrets of the forest. He was so kind that he helped everyone. He was so brave that he fought off all the bad things. He was so beautiful that everyone loved him. He was so happy that he always smiled. He was so confident that he never doubted himself. He was so proud that he thought he was the best tree in the forest. He was so arrogant that he looked down on everyone. He was so selfish that he only cared about himself. He was so greedy that he wanted everything. He was so jealous that he hated everyone else. He was so vain that he loved himself. He was so proud that he thought he was the best tree in the forest. He was so arrogant that he looked down on everyone. He was so selfish that he only cared about himself. He was so greedy that he wanted everything. He was so jealous that he hated everyone else. He was so vain that he loved himself.
