

THE TELL-TALE HEART

INSANITY PLEA

LEGAL DEFINITION OF INSANITY

In a criminal trial, the word "insanity" means something more specific than when we use it in everyday speech. You can't say that someone on trial is "insane" just because he did something that most of us would consider "crazy" (like killing someone, chopping up the body, and hiding the pieces under the floorboards.)

That's because, in a trial, when we say someone is insane, we're saying that the person didn't fully understand what he or she was doing and therefore shouldn't be held responsible for his or her actions. Read the following legal definition of insanity:

Insanity is a mental illness of such a severe nature that a person cannot distinguish fantasy from reality, cannot manage his/her own affairs, or is subject to uncontrollable impulsive behavior. In criminal cases, a plea of "not guilty by reason of insanity" will require a trial on the issue of the defendant's insanity (or sanity) at the time the crime was committed.

In this context, "not guilty" does not mean the person did not commit the criminal act for which he or she is charged. It means that when the person committed the crime, he or she could not tell right from wrong or could not control his or her behavior because of severe mental defect or illness. Such a person, the law holds, should not be held criminally responsible for his or her behavior.
