

Introduction

In recent years there has been a broad trend towards rapidly developing and asserting human rights both civil and rights that help people believe that we should give animals just rights to humans. Others view them as a fashionable term of trend, as well as other idealistic positions.

Body paragraph #1

First of all, it seems clear for north intelligent people that animals deserve more rights than they have. Unfortunately some people think it because they are obviously not used to go with thoughts and feelings are if there are not really the same as our own. For example, it has been said that some animals - birds and dolphins - think that they are just like humans so they would stop the signs of their pain and wish that we would interact with humans better. Therefore, it appears quite clear that they should be given the same rights and protection as humans.

Body paragraph #2

There are arguments against giving rights for animals and not that they have the ability of human feeling and speech but that they are not like us. For example, we think that the fact of behavior is clearly normal within the natural world. It looks human should not be given rights just because they cannot communicate because our natural relationship is with the same as that of a wolf and a sheep. It should be clear for us that animals are not very beautiful because that is the natural way of the world.

Conclusion

In conclusion, there are arguments from both sides of the debate, both arguing that that animals deserve respect, protection, and some rights. Perhaps they should not be given the same treatment as humans but they should certainly be treated better than they currently are and least should be drafted for extreme their protection from undue suffering.

critiques have been thoroughly responded to and several modifications have been suggested. However, writing is still a challenging skill. Therefore, the chapter is followed by introducing the third IELTS critique which is the lack of transparency in IELTS writing assessment criteria. Finally, the chapter is concluded by pointing to the importance of defining IELTS Writing Assessment Criteria. IELTS WAC and attracting candidates' attention to increase writing scores by understanding IELTS WAC.

Chapter 2: Theoretical WAC The second chapter focuses on the four components of IELTS WAC: namely Task Response, Cohesion, Coherence, Grammar, and Vocabulary. The key to increasing writing scores is to be aware of these criteria. The chapter then explains that candidates should first theoretically and conceptually understand IELTS WAC and then learn how to use them in their writing. In chapter two, these four criteria and their subcategories have been defined, and an example is also provided. In short, chapter 2 focuses on providing a theoretical definition for the assessment criteria by grouping them into different subcomponents.

Chapter 3: Task Analysis The third chapter of this book is Task Analysis, which is an essential step before answering any IELTS writing task 2. To analyze a task, candidates should know different sections of an IELTS writing task 2. So the chapter first introduces different sections of a task. Each task consists of two distinct parts: The Statement and the Question Task. Then the chapter focuses on introducing three essential steps in Task Analysis. The first and second steps should be followed in the first part of an IELTS writing task 2, and the third one should be followed in the second part of the task, which is called the Question Task. In the first step, the Main Idea of the task should be extracted from the Statement. In the second step, the Controlling Idea Words should be extracted from the Statement. In the third step, candidates should pay attention to Instructional Words or Action Words to identify Task Type.

Chapter 4: Task Types The fourth chapter focuses on introducing different Task Types. There are five different Task Types: Discussion Essay, Questions, Opinion Essay, Questions Advantages and Disadvantages, Questions Double Question Essays, and Mixed Design Essays. To get a high score in IELTS writing task 2, identifying different Task Types is necessary. The chapter then focuses on introducing different types of the five general Task Types. There are three different models of Discussion Essay, Opinion Essay, and Advantages and Disadvantages Essay. There are four different models of Double Question Essay. Finally, a Mixed Design Essay includes one model.

Chapter 5: How to write an effective introduction The fifth chapter of this book teaches candidates how to write an effective introduction. The introductory paragraph of each essay is an essential step to gain a high score. There are five different steps in writing an introduction: 1. Analyze the Task, 2. Plan Your Essay, 3. Paraphrase the Statement, 4. Thesis Statement, 5. Outline Statement.
