I Am Laurie Laurie Johnson,2011-10-10 I realized after my diagnosis four years ago that having bipolar disorder does not define who I am as a person For close to three decades I battled an unknown adversary believing I was just sinning because I wasn't choosing happiness The story is composed of trials from my life including a turbulent relationship hopelessness and thoughts of suicide the abandonment of my Olympic dream the death of a son in my arms from a genetic disorder the early end to my teaching career and the suicide of my nephew I can now see how my undiagnosed bipolar disorder affected my decision making ability my relationships my joy and the goals I once had for my life It is a story of triumph in the face of adversity one that tells how God has given me a meaningful life even though things haven't turned out how I originally envisioned
