Online Brant M. Himes,John W. Washatka,2022-04-08 Faith Life and Learning Online is an invitation for faith based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment For Christian higher education faith integration is a matter of mission not modality Regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom through hybrid models or exclusively online Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character While traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation As such all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith life and learning in the online environment

In Good Faith Maria Polonchek, 2017-08-03 Part memoir part cultural exploration this book covers the author's journey as she grows up in an evangelical Christian home leaves religion behind as a young adult and goes on to raise children in a family outside of religious belief Maria Polonchek weaves a personal story with up to date studies and philosophic exploration of what it means to raise secular children in an otherwise religious world Offering careful and respectful advice for other parents who are raising their children outside of a particular religious belief system she explores the many other ways of instilling identity belonging and meaning into our lives and the lives of children Honest and irreverent the author admits to her religious baggage and searches for better understanding of such topics as religious education morality awe death purpose and meaning and tradition from secular perspectives She interviews experts looks at various studies and turns to a variety of sources for answers while maintaining a casual and personal tone While she ultimately argues for parents to let their children shape their own beliefs she encourages families to tend to existential and social needs that sometimes go unnoticed or unconsidered in life outside religion
