The Battle Rifle Russell C. Tilstra, 2014-03-13. While the 20th century brought many technological advancements to the battlefield, a key weapon of warfare remains the soldier and his rifle. This volume chronicles the historical development of the modern service rifle after World War II and examines its resurgence in Afghanistan after generations of absence following the introduction of the assault rifle. Individual chapters survey the most combat tested models including the FN FAL, U.S. M14 and HK 417 in technical detail, emphasizing key points in the evolution of rifle technology and ammunition. Also explored is the development of the current M16 series rifle and how recent difficulties in Afghanistan have led to an increasing reliance on the venerable M14. Providing a strong knowledge base of the various weapons now in service throughout the world, this instructive work demonstrates that the battle rifle has not outlived its usefulness.

Small Arms Survey 2005 Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), 2005. The Small Arms Survey 2005 Weapons at War is dedicated to issues surrounding armed conflict, including the sourcing of weapons to conflict areas, weapons use, conflict deaths and post-conflict disarmament initiatives. This edition also provides an overview of small arms ammunition as well as new and updated information on small arms production, stockpiles, transfers and international measures. It presents two case studies: one exploring the concept of gun culture in Kosovo, the other focusing on the Central African Republic. In addition, this volume surveys representations of small arms and armed violence in contemporary art. The Small Arms Survey is the principal international source of impartial and reliable information on all aspects of small arms. Its blend of information and analysis makes it an indispensable resource for policy makers, officials and non-governmental organizations. The Small Arms Survey is an independent research project located at the Graduate Institute of International Studies in Geneva, Switzerland. The project has an international staff with expertise in security studies, political science, international public policy, law, economics, development studies, conflict resolution and sociology, who work closely with a worldwide network of researchers and partners.
