Flann O'Brien Contesting Legacies:

Flann O'Brien Werner Huber, Paul Fagan, Ruben Borg, 2014 Short Fiction of Flann O'Brien Flann O'Brien, 2013-08-15 This riotous collection at last gathers together an expansive selection of Flann O'Brien's shorter fiction in a single volume as well as O'Brien's last and unfinished novel Slattery's Sago Saga. Also included are new translations of several stories originally published in Irish and other rare pieces. With some of these stories appearing here in book form for the very first time and others previously unavailable for decades, Short Fiction is a welcome gift for every fan of Flann O'Brien.

Flann O'Brien and the European Avant-Garde, 1934-45 Tobias William Harris, 2025-01-23 Crossing the boundaries of a single author study, this book uncovers Flann O'Brien's attempt to forge a commercially successful Irish literary project from international avant-garde influences. Situating O'Brien's early work within a global context, the book uses new evidence of his collaborations to reimagine him as a networked writer. O'Brien drew upon experimental techniques to generate new categories of writing, rethink Irish culture, and reach a wide audience. This study illuminates a network of cultural production around O'Brien, linking his work to English comic magazines, Dadaist photomontage, Expressionism, Central European theatre, and renowned writers like Jorge Luis Borges and Franz Kafka. By re-examining Flann O'Brien within the context of the momentous global political and cultural crises that spurred avant-garde experimentation, the book also rewrites the cultural history of Ireland in the 1930s and 1940s.

Modernism and the Machinery of Madness Andrew Gaedtke, 2017-10-26 Modernism and the Machinery of Madness demonstrates the emergence of a technological form of paranoia within modernist culture which transformed much of the period's experimental fiction. Gaedtke argues that the works of writers such as Samuel Beckett, Anna Kavan, Wyndham Lewis, Mina Loy, Evelyn Waugh, and others respond to the collapse of categorical distinctions between human and machine. Modern British and Irish novels represent a convergence between technological models of the mind and new media that were often regarded as thought-influencing machines. Gaedtke shows that this literary paranoia comes into new focus when read in light of twentieth-century memoirs of mental illness. By thinking across the discourses of experimental fiction, mental illness, psychiatry, cognitive science, and philosophy of mind, this book shows the historical and conceptual sources of this confusion as well as the narrative responses. This book contributes to the fields of modernist studies, disability studies, and medical humanities.

Modernism in Wonderland John D. Morgenstern, Michelle Witen, 2024-01-11 Retracing the steps of a surprising array of 20th-century writers who ventured into the fantastical topsy-turvy world of Lewis Carroll's fictions, this book demonstrates the full extent of Carroll's legacy in literary modernism. Testing the authority of language and mediation through extensive word play and genre bending, the Alice books undoubtedly prefigure literary modernism at its upmost experimental. The collection's chapters look beyond literary style to show how Carroll's writings had a far-reaching impact on modern life, from commercial culture to politics and philosophy. This book shows us the Alice we recognize from Carroll's novels but also the Alice modernist writers encountered through the looking glass of these extraliterary discourses Recovering a common touchstone between the likes of T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf W H Auden and writers conventionally regarded on the periphery of modernist studies such as Dorothy L Sayers Sylvia Plath Jorge Luis Borges Flann O'Brien and Vladimir Nabokov this volume ultimately provides a new entry point into a more broadly conceptualised global modernism The Distance of Irish Modernism John Greaney, 2022-06-16 The Distance of Irish Modernism interrogates the paradox through which Irish modernist fictions have become containers for national and transnational histories while such texts are often oblique and perverse in terms of their times and geographies John Greaney explores this paradox to launch a metacritical study of the modes of inquiry used to define Irish modernism in the 21st century Focused on works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen John McGahern Flann O'Brien and Kate O'Brien this book analyses how and if the complex representational strategies of modernist fictions provide a window on historical events and realities Greaney deploys close reading formal analysis narratology and philosophical accounts of literature alongside historicist and materialist approaches as well as postcolonial and world literature paradigms to examine how modernist texts engage the cultural memories they supposedly transmit Emphasizing the proximities and the distances between modernist aesthetic practice and the history of modernity in Ireland and beyond this book enables a new model for narrating Irish modernism Singularity and Transnational Poetics Birgit Mara Kaiser, 2014-12-05 Over the past decade singularity has been a prominent term in a broad range of fields ranging from philosophy to literary and cultural studies to science and technology studies This volume intervenes in this broad discussion of singularity and its various implications proposing to explore the term for its specific potential in the study of literature Singularity and Transnational Poetics brings together scholars working in the fields of literary and cultural studies translation studies and transnational literatures The volume's central concern is to explore singularity as a conceptual tool for the comparative study of contemporary literatures beyond national frameworks and by implication as a tool to analyze human existence Contributors explore how singularity might move our conceptions of cultural identity from prevailing frameworks of self/other toward the premises of being as singular/plural Through a close reading of transnational literatures from Ireland Germany the Netherlands France and South Africa this collection offers a new approach to reading literature that will challenge a reader's established notions of identity individuality communicability and social cohesion Fantasies of Self-Mourning Ruben Borg, 2019-01-07 In Fantasies of Self-Mourning Ruben Borg describes the formal features of a posthuman cyborgian imaginary at work in modernism The book's central claim is that modernism invents the posthuman as a way to think through the contradictions of its historical moment Borg develops a posthumanist critique of the concept of organic life based on comparative readings of Pirandello Woolf Beckett and Flann O'Brien alongside discussions of Alfred Hitchcock Chris Marker B la Tarr Ridley Scott and Mamoru Oshii The argument draws together a cluster of modernist narratives that contemplate the separation of a cybernetic eye from a human body or call for a tearing up of the body understood as a discrete organic unit capable of synthesizing desire and sense perception Silence in Modern Irish Literature ,2017-08-21 Silence in Modern Irish Literature is the first book to focus exclusively on the treatment of silence in modern Irish literature It reveals the wide spectrum of meanings that silence carries in modern Irish literature a mark of historical loss a form of resistance to authority a force of social oppression a testimony to the unspeakable an expression of desire a style of contemplation This volume addresses silence in psychological ethical topographical spiritual and aesthetic terms in works by a range of major authors including Yeats Joyce Beckett Bowen and Friel Jacques Derrida Claire Colebrook,2014-10-17 Jacques Derrida Key Concepts presents a broad overview and engagement with the full range of Derrida s work from the early phenomenological thinking to his preoccupations with key themes such as technology psychoanalysis friendship Marxism racism and sexism to his ethico political writings and his deconstruction of democracy Presenting both an examination of the key concepts central to his thinking and a broader study of how that thinking shifted over a lifetime the book offers the reader a clear systematic and fresh examination of the astounding breadth of Derrida s philosophy Phenomenology and Cultural Difference in High Modernism Maria-Ana Tupan,2023-05-16 Born at the intersection of literary analysis and cultural history the present book collects evidence in support of the idea that far from being decadent in the sense of perverse pursuit of gratuitous refinement and aesthetic relief from historical apathy the art at the turn of the twentieth century was energised by a desire for meaningful form grounded in current epistemology especially of the science ma tresse of the time psychology and other kindred disciplines psychological phenomenology and phenomenological existentialism The circle of influencers has been broadened to include figures of the latter half of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth such as Washington Allston H L Mansel Wilhelm Wundt Alexander Bain Alfred Binet Alfred Adler and S ndor Ferenczi whose shadows are shown to be looming behind modernist texts by T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf Thomas Wolfe Wallace Stevens T E Hulme Flann O Brien Mircea Eliade amongst others A less discussed subject literary genre in modernism is redefined in light of psychology based modernist aesthetics Modern Death in Irish and Latin American Literature Jacob L. Bender,2020-09-22 This comparative literature study explores how writers from across Ireland and Latin America have both in parallel and in concert deployed symbolic representations of the dead in their various anti colonial projects In contrast to the ghosts and revenants that haunt English and Anglo American letters where they are largely either monstrous horrors or illusory frauds the dead in these Irish Latinx archives can serve as potential allies repositories of historical grievances recorders of silenced voices and disruptors of neocolonial discourse Beckett and Modernism Olga Beloborodova,Dirk Van Hulle,Pim Verhulst,2018-04-13 This book of collected essays approaches Beckett s work through the context of modernism while situating it in the literary tradition at large It builds on current debates aiming to redefine modernism in connection to concepts such as late modernism or postmodernism Instead of definitively re categorizing Beckett under any of these labels the essays use his diverse oeuvre encompassing poetry criticism prose theatre radio and film as a case study to investigate and reassess the concept of modernism after postmodernism in all its complexity covering a broad range of topics spanning Beckett's entire career. In addition to more thematic essays about art history, politics, psychology, and philosophy, the collection places his work in relation to that of other modernists such as T. S. Eliot, James Joyce, Wyndham Lewis, Gertrude Stein, and Virginia Woolf, as well as to the literary canon in general. It represents an important contribution to both Beckett studies and modernism studies.

Animal Satire Robert McKay, Susan McHugh, 2023-08-22. Animal Satire presents a cultural history of animal satire, a critically neglected but persistent presence in the history of cultural production in which animals expose human folly while the strategies of satire expose the folly of human-animal relations. Highlighting the teeming animal presences across the history of satirical expression from Aristophanes to Twitter, with chapters on key works of literature, drama, film, and a plethora of satirical media, Animal Satire reveals the rich rhetorical significance of animality in powering the politics of satire from ancient and medieval through modern and contemporary times. More pressingly, the book makes the case for the significance of satire for understanding the real-world implications of rhetoric about animals in ongoing struggles for justice. By gathering both critical and creative examples from representative media forms, historical periods, and continents, this volume aims to enrich scholarship on the history of satire as well as empower creative practitioners with ideas about its practical applications today.

Irish Modernisms Paul Fagan, John Greaney, Tamara Radak, 2021-09-23. This book focuses on previously unexplored gaps, limitations, and avenues of inquiry within the canon and scholarship of Irish modernism to develop a more attentive and fluid theoretical account of this conceptual field. Foregrounding interfaces between literary, visual, musical, dramatic, cinematic, epistolary, and journalistic media, these essays introduce previously peripheral writers, artists, and cultural figures to debates about Irish modernism. Hannah Berman, Ethel Colburn Mayne, Mary Devenport O'Neill, Sheila Wingfield, Freda Laughton, Rhoda Coghill, Elizabeth Bowen, Mírtín Cadhain, Joseph Plunkett, Liam O'Flaherty, Edward Martyn, Jane Barlow, Seosamh Torna, Jack B. Yeats, and Brian O'Nolan all feature here to interrogate the term's implications. Probing Irish modernism's responsiveness to contemporary theory beyond postcolonial and Irish studies, Irish Modernisms: Gaps, Conjectures, Possibilities uses diverse paradigms including weak theory, biopolitics, posthumanism, and the nonhuman turn to rethink Irish modernism's organising themes: the material body, language, mediality, canonicity, war, state violence, prostitution, temporality, death, mourning. Across the volume, cutting-edge work from queer theory and gender studies draws urgent attention to the too-often marginalized importance of women's writing and queer expression to the Irish avant-garde, while critical reappraisals of the coordinates of race and national history compel us to ask not only where and when Irish modernism occurred but also whose modernism it was.

Classics and Irish Politics, 1916-2016 Isabelle Torrance, Donncha O'Rourke, 2020. This interdisciplinary collection, written by experts in their fields, addresses how models from ancient Greece and Rome have permeated Irish political discourse in the century since 1916. Topics covered include the reception and rejection of classical culture in Ireland and the politics of Irish language.
