The Socialist Good Life Cristofer Scarboro,Diana Mincyte,Zsuzsu Gille,2020-06-02 First class rigorously researched richly documented and thought provoking essays on the consumer experience in socialist Eastern Europe Graham H Roberts author of Material Culture in Russia and the USSR As communist regimes denigrated Western countries for widespread unemployment and consumer excess socialist Eastern European states simultaneously legitimized their power through their apparent ability to satisfy consumers needs Moving beyond binaries of production and consumption the essays collected here examine the lessons consumption studies can offer about ethnic and national identity and the role of economic expertise in shaping consumer behavior From Polish VCRs to Ukrainian fashion boutiques tropical fruits in the GDR to cinemas in Belgrade The Socialist Good Life explores what consumption means in a worker state where communist ideology emphasizes collective needs over individual pleasures Consumer Law and Economics Klaus Mathis,Avishalom Tor,2020-08-31 This edited volume covers the challenges currently faced by consumer law in Europe and the United States ranging from fundamental theoretical questions such as what goals consumer law should pursue to practical questions raised by disclosure requirements the General Data Protection Regulation and technology advancements With governments around the world enacting powerful new regulations concerning consumers consumer law has become an important topic in the economic analysis of law Intended to protect consumers these regulations typically seek to do so by giving them tools to make better decisions or by limiting the consequences of their bad decisions Legal scholars are divided however regarding the efficacy and effects of these regulations some call for certain policies to be abolished while others support a regulatory expansion

Consumer Protection in Asia Geraint Howells,Hans-W. Micklitz,Mateja Durovic,André Janssen,2022-08-25 This book looks at the consumer protection offered in a range of Asian countries for example China Japan and South Korea in key areas such as consumer sales law unfair terms product liability and unfair commercial practices However it is interesting to note that consumer protection is on the rise everywhere and to compare how this differs depending upon the legal cultures It is also fascinating to reflect on the influence of models for law reform such as the EU laws ASEAN has also affected the development of consumer policy for its member states The book takes the form of national reports which explain the development of the law and also shed light on how the law works in practice The book also contains thematic reports which look at each area of the law from a comparative perspective Commentators from around the globe reflect on their impression of Asian consumer law based on their own differing legal systems and benchmarks A must read for anyone with an interest in consumer law in Asia and beyond this book will form the basis of further research and discussion internationally B2C

Arbitration: Consumer Protection in Arbitration Alexander J. Belohlávek, 2012-10-01 Consumer protection has become a phenomenon of the past years and the combination of consumer protection and arbitration is especially sensitive Some countries experience tens of thousands of consumer arbitrations each year while others significantly limit or even entirely exclude arbitration in consumer disputes Many countries have undergone certain reforms in consumer disputes the main objective of which is the protection of consumers in arbitration The controversial variable is the degree of protection to be afforded to the consumer both under the applicable substantive law and in procedural terms These are the main issues addressed in this book Apart from the key topic the author has extensively elaborated on certain fundamental categories such as public interest and public policy all primarily in connection to the procedural mechanisms of consumer protection he has also analyzed the applicable European law and the case law of the ECJ and offered an overview of the individual systems employed in both European and non European countries especially the USA and Canada An integral part of this book is an extensive comparison and analysis of the voluminous case law several tens of decisions with reference to more than three hundred other available court decisions The book also focuses on the position of the consumer in the individual procedural stages the intervention of courts in arbitration motivated by consumer protection the individual stages of proceedings recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards rendered in consumer disputes both in domestic context and in the international milieu etc The international practice significantly influences the domestic environment in the individual countries The key issue in the EU countries is in principle the enforcement of EU standards which influence the domestic models of consumer protection primarily in connection with the autonomous EU interpretation of a number of institutions Many related issues have not yet been addressed in the case law of certain states In fact some of them have never even been discovered Besides the enforcement of foreign arbitral awards requires inter alia the compliance with extra EU international obligations binding on the individual states And finally arbitration is not regulated by the EU law as opposed to consumer protection Naturally arbitration is to a significant extent regulated by international law This results in conflicts between national international interpretation and interpretation pursuant to the EU law where the circumstances allow to apply the EU law This book is intended for all readers who have any experience with enforcement of consumer rights as well as for all professionals dealing with arbitration in general It is therefore intended for general legal practitioners lawyers primarily arbitrators of course but also for judiciary dealing with civil matters in the broadest sense Apart from a voluminous case law the book quotes from a number of domestic and foreign sources and above all offers a long list of structured bibliography and detailed subject index as well as a table of states table of cases and list of legal sources It is therefore not only an important tool for the practice but also a useful instrument for academics lawyers as well as other professionals Arbitration Law of Czech Republic: Practice and Procedure Alexander J. Belohlávek, 2013-03-01 A comprehensive review of the arbitration law and practice in the Czech Republic including discussion of arbitration practice and procedure an examination of the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal the appointment of arbitrators including the challenge and replacement of arbitrators an analysis of the various types of awards including a discussion on deliberations agreements settlements and the costs of arbitration a discussion on the amendment and challenge of awards including the liability of arbitrators and a review of the enforcement of domestic and foreign arbitration awards Research Methods in Consumer Law Hans-W.

Micklitz, Anne-Lise Sibony, Fabrizio Esposito, Consumer law is worthy of greater academic attention at a time when many new questions arise and old ones need new answers This unique handbook takes the reader on a journey through existing literature research questions and methods It builds on the state of the art to offer a springboard for jumping to the heart of contemporary issues and equips researchers with a starter s kit to weave together rich traditions ranging from socio economics to behavioural analysis Animal Breeding, Welfare and Society Jacky Turner, 2010-08-12 The determination of when how often and with whom an animal breeds has moved away from evolutionary pressures towards our own purposes these include the breeding and use of around 50 billion mammals and birds for food production annually the breeding of pedigree dogs cats racing dogs and horses specialized laboratory animal strains and the use of reproductive science to breed endangered species in zoos and to attempt to limit unwanted populations of pests and non native species This book discusses the methods the motivations and the consequences of human intervention in animal breeding in terms of what we know about animal behavior and well being It sets out to challenge both our practice and our assumptions those of society as a whole and the many professionals involved in the worldwide animal reproduction business It explores where we are now and proposes a future where we have more respect for animals as sentient beings and have loosened the reins of reproductive control From Baksheesh to Bribery T. Markus Funk, Andrew S. Boutros, 2019-04-05 Worldwide governmental anti corruption efforts have been ramping up like never before From the U S Foreign Corrupt Practices Act FCPA to the U K Bribery Act and recent Chinese French Indonesian Brazilian and German anti bribery legislations the compliance world has witnessed the fight against corruption rocketing to the top of most law reform and enforcement agendas As the fight against corruption goes global practitioners of the compliance regulatory and investigative space must understand and more importantly navigate these increasingly complicated and often perilous compliance waters. With that heavy reality in mind, this first of its kind book draws on the real world experience and expertise possessed by some of the world's leading anti corruption and anti bribery practitioners to make meeting that challenge easier. Featuring country specific chapters and practitioner focused how to modules, From Baksheesh to Bribery serves as a one stop shop for practitioners in house counsel, compliance personnel, academics and others who want and often need to understand the world's perspective on corruption and the fight against it. The Yearbook of Consumer Law 2009 Annette Nordhausen, Geraint Howells, 2008. The book also includes a section dedicated to significant developments during the period covered such as key legislative developments and important court decisions.

Directive 1999/44/EC and the Smart Regulation: Has the Directive Complied with the Principles of Simplicity and Proportionality Under the Smart Regulation Initiative for Consumers in Germany and England and Wales? Zlatka Koleva, 2015-02. Consumption is one of the most influential albeit dynamic economic factors of the 21st century and therefore the legal rules and norms governing consumers are radically changing overtime. On European level Directive 1999/44/EC has had a significant impact on the legal systems of member states since its regulatory framework conflicts with well established traditions rooted in the legal history of a country. This book will explore how and where the directive's norms clash with national law. Germany and England and Wales will serve as examples of two opposite approaches towards its implementation. Furthermore the effects of the directive's incorporation into these domestic legal systems will be assessed in the light of the Smart Regulation's normative principles of simplicity and proportionality in order to determine whether it has improved the position of the consumer or legal certainty has been once again undermined. Treatises on Solvency II Meinrad Dreher, 2015-03-16. The European system of insurance supervision under Solvency II constitutes a parallel to supervision of credit institutions under Basel III. At the heart of this new European insurance supervisory regime are the Solvency II Directive, the attendant regulation and the EIOPA Regulation. The present volume Treatises on Solvency II includes articles on the bases of European insurance supervision and the associated three pillars of solvency governance and disclosure all viewed predominantly from a legal standpoint.
