Difficult Subjects Badia Ahad-Legardy, OiYan A. Poon, 2023-07-03 Difficult Subjects Insights and Strategies for Teaching about Race Sexuality and Gender is a collection of essays from scholars across disciplines institutions and ranks that offers diverse and multi faceted approaches to teaching about subjects that prove both challenging and often uncomfortable for both the professor and the student It encourages college educators to engage in forms of practice that do not pretend that teachers and students are unaffected by world events and incidents that highlight social inequalities Readers will find the collected essays useful for identifying new approaches to taking on the difficult subjects of race gender and sexuality The book will also serve as inspiration for academics who believe that their area of study does not allow for such pedagogical inquiries to also teach in ways that address difficult subjects Contributors to this volume span a range of disciplines from criminal justice to gender studies to organic chemistry and demonstrate the productive possibilities that can emerge in college classrooms when faculty consider identity as constitutive of rather than divorced from their academic disciplines Discussions of race gender and sexuality are always hot button issues in the college classroom whether they emerge in response to a national event or tragedy or constitute the content of the class over a semester long term Even seasoned professors who specialize in these areas find it difficult to talk about identity politics in a room full of students And many professors for whom issues of racial and sexual identity is not a primary concern find it even more challenging to raise these issues with students Offering reflections and practical guidance the book accounts for a range of challenges facing college educators and encourages faculty to teach with courage and conviction especially when it feels as though the world around us is crashing down upon our students and ourselves

Understanding the Culture Jeff Myers, 2017-03-01 Addressing issues such as gender identity abortion technology and poverty Dr Myers challenges readers to ask How can an authentic Christian worldview provide a compassionate effective witness in culture today Dr Myers first shows readers what they can learn from Christian history and why today s issues might not be as new as they seem Then he takes them through the significant topics that affect them every day offering biblical ideas for conversing with others in an increasingly hostile culture This capstone book to a groundbreaking worldview trilogy equips readers to apply a bold Christian witness to their relationships with loved ones neighbors and colleagues

Medical-Surgical Nursing Linda Honan, 2023-09-15 Confidently meet the demands of transitioning students into practice ready nurses with Medical Surgical Nursing Focus on Clinical Judgment 3rd Edition Expertly curated by experienced clinician and nursing educator Dr Linda Honan this practical approach distills complex concepts down to need to know details through the perspective of practicing nurses establishing a comprehensive foundation in medical surgical nursing by way of the most commonly encountered conditions and situations Extensive updates throughout this 3rd Edition broaden your students perspectives cultivate their clinical judgment and prepare them for success from the Next Generation NCLEX to the day to day challenges of today s medical surgical nursing practice Heteroglossia and Language Play in Multilingual Speech Darren LaScotte, Elaine Tarone, 2024-01-29 The studies in this volume show how multilingual learners use language play in second language acquisition to internalize sets of voices rather than decontextualized linguistic systems namely complexes of linguistic and non linguistic features incorporating the personalities of significant others In sociocultural terms these internalized heteroglossic voices become tools that learners can adapt and use playfully to enact chosen roles stances and identities in subsequent oral interactions Different chapters explore these sociocultural constructs using different approaches including variationist sociolinguistics conversation analysis translanguaging and positioning theory Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock, 2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends The Nature of Business Transformation Richard Kelly, 2022-03-17 This book is a practical guide for business professionals to develop and improve business intelligence and collective decision making within their organisation It proposes a progressive

reconfiguration of the traditional business operating system using a nature inspired framework called swarm facilitation that enables and facilitates collective decision making Organisations have followed the same rigid formula of problem solving and decision making for over 100 years It is dominated by centralised governance and pyramid decision making Such an approach is no longer fit for purpose in an environment of employee disengagement artificial intelligence AI superintelligence and Covid 19 fallout By the end of this book readers will be able to solve organisational problems and challenges collectively using swarm intelligence upgrade and future proof business operating systems to reflect a more collective decision making approach fit for the new connected economy and Industry 4 0 embrace mindset quotients that support people working in a more networked self organising and collective environment The book is important reading for leaders and managers who are focused on building organisational capital and engagement and gaining value from the emerging technology by evolving their business operating system into a digital ecosystem as part of an ongoing digital transformation strategy It will also appeal to experts working in the field of organisational change and development both within the organisation and as consultants

Equity and Internationalization on Campus Kaela Jubas, 2018-09-11 Every day we hear how people organizations and ideas are moving across borders We also hear about fairness and justice as fundamental social values How though do these two discourses one related to internationalization and the other to equity converge in lived experience The post secondary institution is one setting where that question might be asked and people who are minoritized for their gender or sexual identities can provide important answers While equity oriented discourses assure LGBT people that they will be free from harassment and discrimination an internationalization discourse might call them to engage in places where they are illegal Equity and Internationalization on Campus shares findings from a Canadian study that explored how LGBT or ally post secondary faculty students and staff encountered these two discourses It offers much to scholars and staff committed to developing an equitable version of internationalization and an international version of equity
