Baby Daddy from Hell Kelly Dunn,2021-08-19 The norm for me was but the latest juicy update for them family friends coworkers whoever would listen My life felt like a reality show and I an open book The ongoing turmoil was so bizarre people were disturbed one individual was capable of such magnitude From alcohol to drugs to domestic violence all in excess police involvement was nothing short of expected Lies upon lies his narcissism gave me skyrocketing anxiety As an ethical godly person myself I struggled to comprehend the predicament I was in Surely this was not my best life Along with his abuse I racked my own brain asking

What am I supposed to learn from all of this Maybe if I knew I could move past this phase But certain lessons can only be fully understood the hard way If I could go back in time and alter the past I would not change a thing As tormenting as it was I lost battles for sure but I won the war I am in a far better place than I ever imagined I have grown leaps and bounds in many facets of life Everything truly happens for a reason One day it hit me turn a negative into a positive hence Baby Daddy from Hell was born In this book based on a true story I will take you on a journey of laughter tears and righteous anger while I share with you how to do the following Establish boundaries Prepare for court Handle harassment Put children first Divert arguments Make hard choices Redirect emotions Stay the course It is liberating to know if I can survive that and come out on top nothing is impossible The word itself says I'm possible Don't make the same mistake I did don't be naive Take initiative and educate yourself Knowledge is power Better to be safe than sorry You never know what the future holds
