Financial services and general government appropriations for 2018 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations.

Subcommittee on Financial Services and General Government,2017 STEM Teachers and Teaching in the Digital Era Yifat Ben-David Kolikant,Dragana Martinovic,Marina Milner-Bolotin,2020-02-20 This book brings together researchers from Israel and Canada to discuss the challenges today s teachers and teacher educators face in their practice There is a growing expectation that the 21st century STEM teachers re examine their teaching philosophies and adjust their practices to reflect the increasing role of digital technologies This expectation presents a significant challenge to teachers who are often asked to implement novel technology rich pedagogies they did not have a chance to experience as students or become comfortable with To exacerbate this challenge the 21st century teachers function not only in a frequently changing educational reality manifested by continuous reforms but are also bombarded by often contradictory and competing demands from the legislators administrators parents and students How do we break the vicious circle of reforms and support STEM teachers in making a real change in student learning This book is unique for at least three reasons First it showcases research situated in Israel and Canada that examines the challenges today s teachers and teacher educators face in their practice While the governments of both countries emphasize STEM education their approaches are different and thus provide for interesting comparisons Second in addition to including research based chapters prominent scholars discuss the contributions in each of the book sections problematizing the issues from a global perspective Third technology has a potential to empower teachers in this era of change and this book provides the unique insights from each country while allowing for comparisons discussing solutions and asking new questions This book will be of interest to all involved in STEM teacher education programs or graduate programs in education as well as to educational administrators interested in implementing technology in their schools Collaborative Approaches to Recruiting, Preparing, and Retaining Teachers for the Field Peterson-Ahmad, Maria,Luther, Vicki L.,2022-01-07 Teacher retention is an area of great concern across the globe as it appears many teachers leave the field after only a few years especially those serving low income students There is a growing gap from preparation to practice Not only must educator preparation programs EPPs be diligent in utilizing systematically effective methods of preparing novice teachers but schools must also be cognizant of the need for continued mentorship and quality professional development that matches the unique needs of their novice teachers When novice teachers enter the profession they must be offered explicit and scaffolded opportunities for continued learning in order to bridge the theoretical aspects of teaching learned in a preparation program to the practical application of a classroom school setting as these opportunities differ from the needs of veteran teachers Collaborative Approaches to Recruiting Preparing and Retaining Teachers for the Field provides a collection of theoretical application and research based information regarding a variety of viewpoints and strategies that educator preparation programs must be cognizant of in order to meet the varied and individualized needs of novice teachers so that the academic behavioral and or social emotional needs of their students are effectively supported Overall this book recognizes the constant need for improvement within educator preparation programs and school systems

showcases that teacher retention is a concern across the United States and globally and shows how educator preparation programs and schools districts must reach across the boundaries of content specificity and collaborate to prepare teacher candidates most effectively Covering topics such as teacher retention collaborative partnerships and growth mindset this book is essential for educational preparation faculty educational leadership faculty P 12 general and special education teachers administrators government officials pre service teachers students researchers and academicians British Pakistani Boys, Education and the Role of Religion Karamat Iqbal, 2018-10-03 British Pakistani children are the second largest ethnic group in UK schools yet little of their education and wider needs have been researched British Pakistani Boys Education and the Role of Religion seeks to rectify this by investigating the educational achievement of British Pakistani boys and the importance of education both in the Pakistani community and in the wider religion of Islam The book draws on research undertaken by the author in three British state secondary schools to respond to the national policy on the education of ethnic minority children It considers the meaning of education for Pakistanis where religion plays an integral role the gaps in education as well as the issue of representation in governance and in the teaching workforce The author concludes by discussing the possibility of responsive education better meeting the needs of Pakistani children by integrating Islamic religious education and education of the world British Pakistani Boys Education and the Role of Religion will be vital reading for academics and both undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Education and Sociology and specifically those studying inclusion equality and diversity or Asian Muslim or Pakistani education It would also appeal to education practitioners policy makers and community activists Focus on Reading Esther Geva, Gloria Ramírez, 2016-09-27 Focus on Reading aims to help teachers develop a deep understanding of the multiple skills and factors involved in second language reading development for second or foreign language learners aged 5 18 It equips teachers with practical skills for the effective teaching and assessment of second language reading to students with different learning needs The book features key research studies on reading comprehension considers examples from real classroom practice and provides activities to help teachers relate the content and objectives to their own teaching context Additional online resources at www.oup.com/elt teacher for Esther Geva is Full Professor in the Department of Applied Psychology and Human Development at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Gloria Ram rez is Associate Professor in the Faculty of Human Social and Educational Development at Thompson Rivers University British Columbia A Commentary on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, Article 15: The Right to Freedom of Association and to Freedom of Peaceful Assembly Aoife Daly, 2016-04-08 In this commentary Aoife Daly provides analysis of Article 15 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child the right of children to freedom of association and assembly Relevant international law text and case law are examined but this commenary goes beyond this to reconceptualise Article 15 The right is applied to themes as varied as association with family and friends political demonstrations and the unionisation of working children with the special position of children to the forefront of the analysis Possibilities for progressing the right through UN mechanisms courts and other arenas are considered In doing so this book pushes traditional boundaries to and understandings of association and assembly drawing out particularly child specific elements of this crucial right
