Approaching African History Michael Brett, 2013 Africa is a huge continent as large as the more habitable areas of Europe and Asia put together This book takes as its subject the last 10 000 years of African history and traces the way in which human society on the continent has evolved from communities of hunters and gatherers to the complex populations of today

Studies in West African Islamic History John Ralph Willis, 2018-02-05 First published in 1979 this first of three volumes examines the many means and figures through which Islam was cultivated in West Africa over a prolonged period It combines the work from eminent scholars in the field most of which have travelled widely in the historic region of Western Sudan This book will be of interest to those studying Islamic and West African history

A Geography of Jihad Stephanie Zehnle, 2020-01-20 This book addresses the Jihad movement that created the largest African state of the 19th century the Sokoto Caliphate existing for 99 years from 1804 until its military defeat by European colonial troops in 1903 The author carves out the entanglements of jihadist ideology and warfare with geographical concepts at Africa's periphery of the Islamic world geographical knowledge about the boundary between the Land of Islam and the Land of War the pre colonial construction of the Muslim and the unbeliever and the transfer of ideas between political elites and mobile actors traders pilgrims slaves soldiers whose reports helped shape new definitions of the African frontier of Islam Research for this book is based on the study of a very wide range of Arabic and West African Hausa Fulfulde manuscripts Their policies reveal the persistent reciprocity of jihadist warfare and territorial statehood of Africa and the Middle East Stephanie Zehnle is Assistant Professor JProf of Extra European History at Kiel University Christian Albrechts Universit t Her work on African and trans continental history includes research on the history of Islam human animal relations and comics in Africa

Atlas of Islamic History Peter Sluglett, Andrew Currie, 2015-01-30 This Atlas provides the main outlines of Islamic history from the immediate pre Islamic period until the end of 1920 that is before most parts of the Muslim world became sovereign nation states Each map is accompanied by a text that contextualises explains and expands upon the map and are fully cross referenced All of the maps are in full colour 18 of them are double page spreads and 25 are single page layouts This is an atlas of Islamic not simply Arab or Middle Eastern history hence it covers the entire Muslim world including Spain North West and East Africa the Indian sub continent Central Asia and South East Asia The maps are not static in that they show transitions within the historical period to which they refer for instance the stages of the three contemporaneous Umayyad Fatimid and Abbasid caliphates on Map 10 or the progress of the Mongol invasions and the formation of the various separate Mongol khanates between 1200 and 1300 on Map 21 Using the most up to date cartographic and innovative design techniques the maps break new ground in illuminating the history of Islam Brought right up to date with the addition of a Postscript detailing The Islamic World since c 1900 a Chronology from 500 BCE to 2014 and additional endpaper maps illustrating The Spread of Islam through the Ages and The Islamic World in the 21st Century the Atlas of Islamic History is an essential reference work and an invaluable textbook for undergraduates studying Islamic history as well as those with an interest in Asian History Middle East History and World History more broadly

A Military History of Africa Timothy J. Stapleton, 2013-10-21 A detailed and thorough chronological overview of the history of warfare and military structures in Africa covering ancient times to the present day A Military History of Africa achieves a daunting task it synthesizes decades of specialized academic research and literature including the most recent material to offer an accessible survey of Africa's military history from the earliest times to the present day The first volume examines the precolonial period beginning with warfare in ancient North Africa including ancient Egypt and Carthage and continues through the cavalry based Muslim empires of the trans Sahara trade and the wars of the slave trade in West and East Africa The second volume focuses on the wars of European colonial conquest and African resistance during the late 19th century African participation in both world wars and the early violent struggles for independence from the 1950s and early 1960s The third volume explores warfare in postcolonial Africa including coverage of the impact of the global Cold War conflicts in Southern Africa from the 1960s to 1980s the development of postcolonial African armed forces and civil wars sparked by the discovery of precious resources such as diamonds in Sierra Leone Readers of this three volume work will understand how warfare and military structures have been consistently central to the development of African societies

General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa, 1989-12-31 One of UNESCO's most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa's cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents

The History of Africa Molefi Kete Asante, 2014-10-10 There is a paradox about Africa it remains a subject that attracts considerable attention yet rarely is there a full appreciation of its complexity African historiography has typically consisted of writing Africa for Europe instead of writing Africa for itself as itself from its own perspectives The History of Africa redresses this by letting the perspectives of Africans themselves take center stage Authoritative and comprehensive this book provides a wide ranging history of Africa from earliest prehistory to the present day using the cultural social political and economic lenses of Africa as instruments to illuminate the ordinary lives of Africans The result is a fresh survey that includes a wealth of indigenous ideas African concepts and traditional outlooks that have escaped the writing of African history in the West The new edition includes information on the Arab Spring the rise of FrancAfrica the presence of the Chinese in Africa and the birth of South Sudan The chapters go up to the present day addressing US President Barack Obama's policies toward Africa A new companion website provides students and scholars of Africa with access to a wealth of supporting resources for each chapter including images video and audio clips and links to sites for further research This straightforward illustrated and factual text allows the reader to access the major developments personalities and events on the African continent This groundbreaking survey is an indispensable guide to African history

collects seven studies on the grammatical aspects of number names No attempt has been made to unify the notation but all authors work from a generative viewpoint Each contribution chosen gives more than just a description of the number name system in a certain language Thus the linguist interested in simplicity types of transformations functional rules tagmemic rules comparisons between languages or language universals may profit from this collection H BRANDT CORSTIUS v T ABLE OF CONTENTS A V AN KA TWIJ K A Functional Grammar of Dutch Number Names 1 BARRON BRAINERD On the Syntax of Certain Classes of Numerical Expressions 9 BARRON BRAINERD A Transformational Generative Grammar for Rumanian Numerical Expressions 41 BARRON BRAINERD and FRED C C PENG A Syntactic Comparison of Chinese and Japanese Numerical Expressions 53 RANI SIROMONEY Grammars of Number Names of Certain Dravidian Languages 82 WILLIAM R MERRIFIELD Number Names in Four Languages of Mexico 91 HUGO BRANDT CORSTIUS Automatic Translation between Number Names 103 VII A VAN KATWIJK A FUNCTIONAL GRAMMAR OF DUTCH NUMBER NAMES At the present time there are quite a number of generative grammars for numerical expressions Brainerd 1967 even mentions the possibility of giving a complete description of systems of numerical expressions in any language where the transformation theory of number names provides a framework for discussions of a number of universals He also refers to the advantages of completeness of descriptions being possible in these grammars

Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today

Themes in West Africa's History Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, 2006-01-15 There has long been a need for a new textbook on West Africa's history In Themes in West Africa's History editor Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong and his contributors meet this need examining key themes in West Africa's prehistory to the present through the lenses of their different disciplines The contents of the book comprise an introduction and thirteen chapters divided into three parts Each chapter provides an overview of existing literature on major topics as well as a short list of recommended reading and breaks new ground through the incorporation of original research The first part of the book examines paths to a West African past including perspectives from archaeology ecology and culture linguistics and oral traditions Part two probes environment society and agency and historical change through essays on the slave trade social inequality religious interaction poverty disease and urbanization Part three sheds light on contemporary West Africa in exploring how economic and political developments have shaped religious expression and identity in significant ways Themes in West Africa s History represents a range of intellectual views and interpretations from leading scholars on West Africa s history It will appeal to college undergraduates graduate students and scholars in the way it draws on different disciplines and expertise to bring together key themes in West Africa s history from prehistory to the present
