Le Passager Clandestin:

Le Passager Clandestin, Etc Georges Simenon, 1947      Le convenzioni internazionali della navigazione marittima, interna e aerea Giorgio Righetti, Massimiliano Rimaboschi, 2008      Exile, Non-Belonging and Statelessness in Grangaud, Jabès, Lubin and Luca Greg Kerr, 2021-06-07 At least since the Romantic era poetry has often been understood as a powerful vector of collective belonging The idea that certain poets are emblematic of a national culture is one of the chief means by which literature historicizes itself inscribes itself in a shared cultural past and supplies modes of belonging to those who consume it But what then of the exiled migrant or translingual poet How might writing in a language other than one's mother tongue complicate this picture of the relation between poet language and literary system What of those for whom the practice of poetry is inseparable from a sense of restlessness or unease suggesting a condition of not being at home in any one language even that of their mother tongue These questions are crucial for four French language poets whose work is the focus of this study Armen Lubin 1903-74 Gh. rasim Luca 1913-94 Edmond Jabès 1912-91 and Michelle Grangaud 1941 Ranging across borders within and beyond the Francosphere from Algeria to Armenia to Egypt to Romania this book shows how a poetic practice inflected by exile statelessness or non belonging has the potential to disrupt long held assumptions of the relation between subjects the language they use and the place from which they speak      Le Passager Clandestin. The Stowaway. Translated ... by Nigel Ryan Georges Simenon, Nigel RYAN, 1957      ,      The Stranger as My Guest Michel Agier, 2021-01-14 The migration crisis of recent years has elicited a double response on the one hand many states have responded by tightening border controls in an attempt to restrict population movements while on the other hand many citizens have responded by welcoming new arrivals offering them shelter food and whatever help they could provide By so doing they have re-awakened an old form of anthropology that was long considered to be dead that of hospitality In this book Agier develops an original anthropology of hospitality that starts from the reality of hospitality as a social relationship albeit an asymmetrical one in which each party has rights and duties He argues that with the decline of state and religious support hospitality is now making a comeback at individual and municipal levels but these local initiatives while important are insufficient to respond to the scale of migration in the world today We need a new hospitality policy for the modern era one that will regard hospitality as a right rather than a favour and will treat the stranger as a guest rather than as an alien or an enemy This timely and original book will be of great interest to students and scholars in anthropology sociology and the social sciences generally and to anyone concerned with migration and refugees in the world today      Made in France G r me Guibert, Catherine Rudent, 2017-11-06 Made in France Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive introduction to the history sociology and musicology of contemporary French popular music The volume consists of essays by scholars of French popular music and covers the major figures styles and social contexts of pop music in France The book first presents a general description of the history and background of popular music in France followed by essays that are organized into thematic sections The Mutations of French Popular Music During the Trente Glorieuses Politicising Popular Music Assimilation Appropriation French Specificity and From Digital Stakes to Cultural Heritage French Contemporary Topics Contributors Christian B thune Juliette Dalbavie G r me Guibert Fabien Hein Olivier Julien Marc Kaiser Barbara Lebrun David Looseley St phanie Molinero Anne Petiau C ile Pr vost Thomas Vincent Rouz Catherine Rudent Matthieu Saladin Jedediah Sklower Rapha l Suire Florence Tamagne Chris Marker Nora M. Alter,2023-08-31 The maverick filmmaker s personal and political relationships with film Best known in the United States for his visionary short film La Jet e Chris Marker spearheaded the burgeoning Nouvelle Vague scene in the late 1950s His distinctive style and use of still images place him among the postwar era s most influential European filmmakers His fearless political cinema meanwhile provided a bold model for other activist filmmakers Nora M Alter investigates the core themes and motivations behind an unpredictable and transnational career that defies easy classification A photographer multimedia artist writer broadcaster producer and organizer Marker cultivated an artistic dynamism and always changing identity I am an essayist Marker once said and his 1953 debut filmic essay The Statues Also Die with Alain Resnais exposed the European art market s complicity in atrocities in the former Belgian Congo Ranging geographically as well as artistically Marker s travels led to films like the classic Sans Soleil and Sunday in Peking His decades long struggle against global injustice involved him with Night and Fog Le Joli Mai Far from Vietnam Le fond du l air est Rouge and Prime Time in the Camps Insightful and revealing Chris Marker includes interviews with the notoriously private director Underground Europe Luca Queirolo Palmas,Federico Rahola,2022-11-07 This book is grounded in an extended analogy between the 19th century story of the Underground Railroad in North America transporting fugitive slaves to safety in the North and the 21st century routes and trails of migrant passages to and within Europe It begins as a kind of historical travelogue tracing the remnants of the 19th century Underground Railroad in the US and Canada including its legacies and unfulfilled heritage It then shifts to the political present by ethnographically sketching a series of different border instances and situations both external and within the EU space Ventimiglia Athens Paris Calais Ceuta and Melilla Patras Pozzallo Focusing on the violent harshening of local border regimes this book nonetheless suggests a different picture one conceived as the dynamic effect of both migrants autonomy and of the solidarity provided by local and international groups Focusing on these specific and contested situations it is possible to reverse the image of a main borderland into one of a space crisscrossed by many routes and passages Reading those experiences through the historical lens of the US antebellum Underground Railroad the book suggests the idea of an analogous Underground Europe Simenon Stanley G. Eskin,2025-03-05 The most comprehensive account of Georges Simenon s life and work in either English or French from his youth and adolescence in Belgium through his spirited beginnings as a writer of pulp fiction in the Paris of the 20s his invention of Maigret in 1930 his turn to straight fiction in the 30s and from the 40s on his prolific output of detective and straight fiction His obsession with women and his major friendships Jean Renoir Charlie Chaplin Thornton Wilder and others are detailed Also critical evaluations of his fiction including the largely ignored pulp fiction Simenon's relationship to popular traditions literature detective fiction high literature and the critics are offered The photographs are rare and revealing e g with Josephine Baker cutting up in a bistro

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe

Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

Routledge Handbook of Non-Violent Extremism Elisa Orofino,William Allchorn,2023-03-09 This Handbook provides the first in depth analysis of non violent extremism across different ideologies and geographic centres a topic overshadowed until now by the political and academic focus on violent and jihadi extremism in the Global North Whilst acknowledging the potentiality of non violent extremism as a precursor to terrorism this Handbook argues that non violent extremism ought to be considered a stand alone area of study Focusing on Islamist Buddhist Hindu far right far left environmentalist and feminist manifestations the Handbook discusses the ideological foundation of their war on ideas against the prevailing socio political and cultural systems in which they operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives This is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in Europe and the United States but also in Africa Asia Oceania and the Middle East The Handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the Global South The Handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism It intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology Islamic studies and anthropology

Oikonomia Étienne Helmer,2024-05-08 A detailed analysis of oikonomia an underexplored branch of knowledge in ancient Greek philosophy In this book Étienne Helmer offers a comprehensive analysis of oikonomia in ancient Greek philosophy Despite its similarity to the word economy for the ancients oikonomia named a branch of knowledge the science of management that was aimed at studying the practices we engage in to satisfy our needs This began with the domestic sphere but it radiated outward from the oikos house to encompass broader issues in the polis city as well Helmer explores topics such as gender roles and marriage property and the household the acquisition and preservation of material goods and how Greek philosophers addressed the issue of slavery in the ancient world Even if we are not likely to share many of ancient thinkers beliefs today Helmer shows that there was once a way of thinking of economic life that went beyond the mere accumulation of wealth representing a key point of departure for understanding how to inhabit the world with others

Preventing Radicalization Mohammed El Ourmi, 2025-05-13 Faced with the growing and persistent threat of radicalization both in France and worldwide it is crucial to explore new approaches to prevention Preventing Radicalization proposes an innovative method for understanding and preventing violent radicalization focusing on the development of individual responsibility through the enhancement of psychosocial skills It examines the limits of traditional approaches centered on security and justice and proposes concrete innovative strategies focused on the search for solutions notably through educational and awareness raising programs This integrated humanistic approach which aims to strengthen epistemic emotional attentional relational and axiological skills represents a significant advance in the primary prevention of violent radicalization processes In a context where radicalization continues to threaten the stability of societies it is imperative to rethink prevention strategies This book provides the essential keys to understanding this complex threat for all those who wish to tackle it
