Martin, 2006 Activation imposes a variety of costs on reservists Among those costs is a potential decline in earnings during the period of activation In this study RAND researchers compute how earnings change when a reservist is activated using administrative data on military and civilian earnings obtained from the Department of Defense DOD and the Social Security Administration SSA The study employs a comprehensive measure of annual earnings and covers the experiences of virtually all reservists activated in support of the Global War on Terrorism through 2003 Contrary to conventional wisdom and DOD survey evidence the RAND study indicates that on average the earnings of reservists increase substantially when activated Moreover earnings gains increase length of active duty service Some reservists do experience an earnings loss when activated but the probability of experiencing an earnings loss declines with length of active duty service Even so these large earnings gains may be insufficient to compensate reservists for the hardship of active duty

Orphans of the Republic Olivier Wieviorka, 2009 On July 10 1940 by a 570 to 80 margin the representatives in the French parliament voted full powers to Philippe Pétain ending the Third Republic and paving the way for the collaborationist Vichy regime Olivier Wieviorka offers a nuanced portrait of the individuals who determined the fate of France at this critical moment Pétain claimed to be saving France from ruin The day of the vote has been described as a journée des dupes the legislators so ignorant or fearful that they voted without a thought to the consequences But Wieviorka shows that most of the deputies made a considered decision to vote for Pétain He analyzes the factors such as political culture and regional origins that motivated the voting on both sides and traces the men's fates through the war Recreating the tense atmosphere of summer 1940 Wieviorka shows how pressures brought on by defeat could affect even the most hardened republicans He illuminates the complex moral issues inherent in accommodation and collaboration in a time of crisis Treaties in Force ,2013 Military Review ,1940 *People of the State of Illinois V.
