Pathways to Productivity Kristin Wedding,Johanna Nesseth Tuttle,2013-10-16 This report provides an overview of the debate in Kenya Tanzania and Uganda over genetically modified GM crops and their potential role in improving food security among smallholder farmers Specifically in each country it examines regulatory structures science and research capacity communication and public opinion the views of smallholder farmers and the forecast for adoption of genetically modified organisms GMOs Additionally it examines regional regulatory efforts and potential trade impacts Finally the report provides a set of policy recommendations targeted toward the U S government focus country governments the donor community and nongovernmental organizations The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M.,Arasa, Josephine N.,2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya Second Language Acquisition Christine Savvidou,2020-07-29 This volume presents a collection of current research on pedagogies practices and perspectives in the field of second language acquisition It brings together different aspects of learning teaching and researching a second language with chapters covering a range of topics from emotional communication pragmatic competence transformative pedagogy inclusion reflective teaching and innovative research methodologies The authors address a global audience to offer insights into contemporary theories research policies and practices in second language acquisition This collection of work is aimed at students teachers and researchers wishing to reflect on current developments and identify potential research directions Human-Insect Interactions Sergey Govorushko,2018-01-09 This book presents a 360 degree picture of the world of insects and explores how their existence affects our lives the good bad and ugly aspects of their interactions with humankind It provides a lucid introductory text for beginning undergraduate students in the life sciences particularly those pursuing beginner courses in entomology agriculture and botany Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat,2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa Global report on the state of dietary data Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,Intake - Center for dietary assessment,2022-03-09 Diet and nutrition are critical to health well being and longevity The economic and health burdens associated with poor quality diets are a worldwide concern but for low and middle income countries LMICs the long term impact of these burdens has the potential to be especially devastating Many of these LMICs are currently grappling with the deepening multiple burdens of malnutrition with undernutrition nutrient inadequacies and overweight and obesity often presenting simultaneously in communities households and even in single individuals Time relevant data is a necessary and critical component of any process or initiative that aims to ensure healthy diets Robust data on what people eat in a country enables an understanding of current food consumption practices and provides an evidence based foundation for the design and implementation of targeted and well informed actions policies and messaging to address the key issues related to healthy eating The purpose of this report is to take stock and celebrate the collection and use of dietary data in LMICs and generate further momentum for investment in government led dietary surveys in LMICs Section 1 provides a global overview of dietary surveys carried out in LMICs from 1980 through 2019 analysing key characteristics and trends over time Section 2 celebrates the increased investment in dietary surveys in LMICs by highlighting country stories related to dietary survey initiation implementation and data use Section 3 is aimed at generating further momentum for investment in government led dietary surveys in LMICs by illustrating through data visualizations the type of information dietary data can provide for policy makers   The Wiley International Handbook of Educational Leadership Duncan Waite,Ira Bogotch,2017-03-16 A provocative and authoritative compendium of writings on leadership in education from distinguished scholar educators worldwide What is educational leadership What are some of the trends questions and social forces most relevant to the current state of education What are the possible futures of education and what can educational leadership contribute to these futures To address these questions and more editors Duncan Waite and Ira Bogotch asked distinguished international thought leaders on education to share their insights observations and research findings on the nature of education and educational leadership in the global village The Wiley International Handbook of Educational Leadership brings together contributions from authors in twenty one countries spanning six continents Topics examined include leadership and aesthetics creativity eco justice advocacy Big Data and technology neoliberalism emerging philosophies and theories critical democracy gender and radical feminism political economies emotions postcolonialism and new directions in higher education A must read for teachers researchers scholars and policy makers this Handbook Champions radical pluralism over consensus and pseudoscientific or political solutions to problems in education Embraces social economic and political relevance alongside the traditions of careful and systematic rigor Challenges traditional epistemological cultural and methodological concepts of education and educational leadership Explores the field s historical antecedents and ways in which leadership can transcend the narrow disciplinary and bureaucratic constraints imposed by current research designs and methods Advances radically new possibilities for remaking educational leadership research and educational institutions   Thus Until Emilia Ilieva,Reuben Matheka,2025-08-04 Thus

Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Contextualizing and Organizing Contingent Faculty Ishmael I. Munene,2018-02-15 Contextualizing and Organizing Contingent Faculty Reclaiming Academic Labor in Universities seeks to develop a counterculture that eschews the neoliberal ideology and interloping market values in higher education More than merely lamenting the disruptive effects of these marketplace values in higher education institutions it develops both theoretical insights and practical organizing strategies pertinent to challenging new academic capitalist values and behaviors Contributors local and international present cases from various institutions to illuminate how national trends concerning contingent faculty are articulated implemented and challenged at the local level They present organizing strategies which are analyzed from an interdisciplinary perspective providing a thorough and comprehensive view of the contingent labor movement This book will provide useful lessons to a broad array of audiences in universities labor movements and national and local governments Disability and Social Justice in Kenya Nina Berman,Rebecca Monteleone,2022-05-19 Disability in Africa has received significant attention as a dimension of global development and humanitarian initiatives Little international attention is given however to the ways in which disability is discussed and addressed in specific countries in Africa Little is known also about the ways in which persons with disabilities have advocated for themselves over the past one hundred years and how their needs were or were not met in locations across the continent Kenya has been on the forefront of disability activism and disability rights since the middle of the twentieth century The country was among the first African states to create a legal framework addressing the rights of persons with disabilities namely the Persons with Disabilities Act of 2003 Kenya however has a much longer history of institutions and organizations that are dedicated to addressing the specific needs of persons with disabilities and substantial developments have occurred since the introduction of the legal framework in 2003 Disability and Social Justice in Kenya Scholars Policymakers and Activists in Conversation is the first interdisciplinary and multivocal study of its kind to review achievements and challenges related to the situation of persons with disabilities in Kenya today in light of the country s longer history of disability and the wide range of local practices and institutions It brings together scholars activists and policymakers who comment on topics including education the role of activism the legal framework culture the impact of the media and the importance of families and the community
