Masquerade Essays On Tradition And Innovation Worldwide:

Masquerade Deborah Bell, 2014-12-31 In its conventional meaning masquerade refers to a festive gathering of people wearing masks and elegant costumes But traditional forms of masquerade have evolved over the past century to include the representation of alternate identities in the media and venues of popular culture including television film the internet theater museums sports arenas popular magazines and a range of community celebrations reenactments and conventions This collection of fresh essays examines the art and function of masquerade from a broad range of perspectives From African slave masquerade in New World iconography to the familiar Guy Fawkes masks of the Occupy Wall Street movement to the branded identities created by celebrities like Madonna Beyonce and Lady Gaga the essays show how masquerade permeates modern life

Festival Cities John R. Gold, Margaret M. Gold, 2020-12-04 Festivals have always been part of city life but their relationship with their host cities has continually changed With the rise of industrialization they were largely considered peripheral to the course of urban affairs Now they have become central to new ways of thinking about the challenges of economic and social change as well as repositioning cities within competitive global networks In this timely and thought provoking book John and Margaret Gold provide a reflective and evidence based historical survey of the processes and actors involved charting the ways that regular festivals have now become embedded in urban life and city planning Beginning with David Garrick's rain drenched Shakespearean Jubilee and ending with Sydney's flamboyant Mardi Gras celebrations it encompasses the emergence and consolidation of city festivals After a contextual historical survey that stretches from Antiquity to the late nineteenth century there are detailed case studies of pioneering European arts festivals in their urban context Venice's Biennale the Salzburg Festival the Cannes Film Festival and Edinburgh's International Festival Ensuing chapters deal with the worldwide proliferation of arts festivals after 1950 and with the ever increasing diversification of carnival celebrations particularly through the actions of groups seeking to assert their identity The conclusion draws together the book's key themes and sketches the future prospects for festival cities Lavishly illustrated and copiously researched this book is essential reading not just for urban geographers social historians and planners but also for anyone interested in contemporary festival and events tourism urban events strategy urban regeneration regeneration or simply building a fuller understanding of the relationship between culture planning and the city

Masquerade and Social Justice in Contemporary Latin American Fiction Helene Carol Weldt-Basson, 2017-05-01 Contemporary Latin American fiction establishes a unique connection between masquerade frequently motivated by stigma or trauma and social justice Using an interdisciplinary approach that combines philosophy history psychology literature and social justice theory this study delineates the synergistic connection between these two themes Weldt Basson examines fourteen novels by twelve different Latin American authors Mario Vargas Llosa Sergio Galindo Augusto Roa Bastos Fernando del Paso Mayra Santos Febres Isabel Allende Carmen Boullosa Antonio Benítez Rojo Marcela Serrano Sara Seifchovich Luisa Valenzuela and Ariel

Dorfman She elucidates the varieties of social justice operating in the plots of contemporary Latin American novels distributive postmodern feminist postcolonial transitional and historical justices The author further examines how masquerade and disguise aid in articulating the theme of social justice why this is important and how it relates to Latin American history and the historical novel Neo-Georgian Fiction Jakub Lipski, Joanna Maciulewicz, 2021-06-07 This book contributes to the development of contemporary historical fiction studies by analysing neo Georgian fiction which unlike neo Victorian fiction has so far received little critical attention The essays included in this collection study the ways in which the selected twentieth and twenty first century novels recreate the Georgian period in order to view its ideologies through the lens of such modern critical theories as performativity post colonialism feminism or visual theories They also demonstrate the rich repertoire of subgenres of neo Georgian fiction ranging from biographical fiction epistolary novels to magical realism The included studies of the diverse novelistic conventions used to re contextualise the Georgian reality reflect the way we see its relevance and relation to the present and trace the indebtedness of the new forms of the contemporary novel to the traditional novelistic genres Toy Story Susan Smith, Noel Brown, Sam Summers, Chris Pallant, 2018-01-25 A collection of original essays on Toy Story exploring its themes techniques and cultural significance The Politics of Becoming Hans Asenbaum, 2023 What roles do our identities play in democratic politics When we participate in citizens assemblies or in social movement gatherings we are judged by how we look which clothes we wear by our skin colour gender and body language Prejudice does not only lead to discrimination but also limits the freedom of expressing ourselves The Politics of Becoming explores radical democratic acts of disidentification to counter this problem Anonymity in masked protest pamphleteering street graffiti and online debate interrupts our everyday identities By concealing who we believe ourselves to be anonymity allows us to live our multiple selves In the digital age anonymity becomes an inherent part of everyday communication Through our smart devices we express our selves differently As cyborgs our identities are disrupted and reassembled We curate self representations on social media create avatars share selfies and choose the skin colour of our emojis To counter discrimination and express ourselves more freely in democratic spaces we need to embrace our inner multiplicity This argument does not break with the feminist politics of presence Claiming and reinterpreting marginalized identities is a crucial element of an emancipatory democratic strategy The Politics of becoming however re reads presence as the performative act of self creation Drawing on queer gender feminist and anarchist thinking this book argues for an interruption of the dominant order to engage in self transformation Acculturative Stress and Change in Nigerian Society Ezekiel Ette, 2019-11-20 Acculturative Stress and Change in Nigerian Society argues that in the aftermath of European domination and colonial rule African struggle and the relationships between social groups in Africa can be traced to the legacy of colonialism as well as events in the post colonial struggle of domination by the elites This book locates ethnic conflict in Nigeria not only in the colonial history but in the attitude and practices of the political elites Using the Annang of

Nigeria as a case study the book traces their history and struggle for ethnic identity and recognition from pre colonial times to the post civil war period It further argues that colonialism destroyed the Annang identity but the struggle for power following colonialism has also raised other problems What happened to the Annang represents an example that was repeated all over Africa The author maintains that what is happening among the Annang is symptomatic of the African struggle This book moves beyond the usual discussion of the effects of colonialism in the continent which views the modern state as a monolithic whole It presents as a real life example of the effects of colonialism and power relationships in the post independent continent and therefore a window through which to see the African problems in modern times The African elites who took power from the colonialists simply continued policies that did not promote growth and development It further argues that specific actions and policies in the pre and post colonial period contributed to where the continent is today

Un/Masking Laurette Burgholzer, Joyce Cheng, Sarah Hegenbart, Bethan Hughes, Judith Kemp, Christiane Lewe, W. Anthony Sheppard, Bernhard Siegert, Anja Wächter, Eleonore Zapf, 2021-08-15 This volume looks at masking and unmasking as indivisible aspects of the same process It gathers articles from a wide range of disciplines and addresses unmasking both as a historical and a contemporary phenomenon By highlighting the performative dimensions of unmasking it challenges dichotomies like depth and surface authenticity and deception that play a central role in masks being commonly associated with illusion and dissimulation The contributions explore topics such as the relationship between face mask and identity in artistic contexts ranging from Surrealist photography to video installations and from Modernist poetry to fin de siècle cabaret theater They investigate unmasking as a process of transition and transformation be it in the case of the wooden masks of the First Nations of the American Northwest Coast or of the elaborate costumes and vocal masking of pop icon Lady Gaga In all of these instances the act of unmasking has the power to simultaneously hide and reveal It destabilizes supposedly fixed identities and blurs the lines between the self and the other the visible and the invisible The volume offers new perspectives on current debates surrounding issues such as protective masks in public spaces facial recognition technologies and colonial legacies in monuments and museums offering insight into what the act of unmasking can mean today With contributions by Laurette Burgholzer Joyce Cheng Sarah Hegenbart Bethan Hughes Judith Kemp Christiane Lewe W Anthony Sheppard Bernhard Siegert Anja Wächter and Eleonore Zapf
