An Exposition of the Book of Proverbs Charles Bridges,1850 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1891
The Athenaeum ,1887 Bilingual First Language Acquisition Jürgen M. Meisel,1994-09-06 The contributions in this volume are based on an analysis of data from bilingual children acquiring French and German simultaneously The longitudinal studies started at approximately age one year and six months and continued till age six The papers focus on the development of specific grammatical phenomena explanations are given within the framework of the Principle and Parameter approach The study is primarily concerned with the acquisition of so called functional categories and the consequences of their acquisition for the development of grammar Specific points dealt with in these papers include gender number and case and their internal structure DP vs NP inflection and its consequences for agreement marking and word order phenomena subject raising constructions incl passives word order in subordinate clauses The basic hypothesis underlying this study is that early child grammars consist only of lexical categories and that functional categories are implemented later in the child s grammar How this happens exactly is the central issue explored in this book Grades 5 and 6, for ages nine to twelve
