Women's Lives in Contemporary French and Francophone Literature Florence Ramond Journey, Karen McPherson, 2016-10-13 The essays in this volume provide an overview and critical account of prevalent trends and theoretical arguments informing current investigations into literary treatments of motherhood and aging They explore how two key stages in women's lives maternity and old age are narrated and defined in fictions and autobiographical writings by contemporary French and francophone women Through close readings of Maryse Condé Hélène Cixous Zahia Rahmani Linda L Pierrette Fleutieux and Michèle Sarde among others these essays examine related topics such as dispossession female friendship and women's relationships with their mothers By adopting a broad synthetic approach to these two distinct and defining stages in women's lives this volume elucidates how these significant transitional moments set the stage for women's evolving definitions and interrogations of their identities and roles Francophone Afropean Literatures Nicki Hitchcott, Dominic Richard David Thomas, 2014 This volume explores the concept and possibility of a black European community by analysing the ways in which contemporary Francophone African writers articulate and interrogate their complex relationships with European society culture and history Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice, 2021-12-16 Worldwide Women Writers in Paris examines a new literary phenomenon consisting of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have come to Paris and become authors of written works in French It takes as its starting point a series of filmed interviews conducted in the French capital a set of recorded conversations motivated by a desire to pay homage to these discrete voices and images at a moment characterized by impressive diversity Their individual paths to France and to French are noteworthy and these authors of different generations and varying places of origin emphasize their singularity However the juxtaposition of their reflections reveals that many have faced similar difficulties when learning the French language adapting to life in France and many have encountered forms of prejudice in the publishing world related to their ethnicity or gender These challenges have led them each in an idiosyncratic manner to tackle tough topics in their work and to respond to adversity by finding effective creative expressions Taken together the innovations and interventions in oral and written form of these authors collectively contribute to significant change in the specialized scene that is the Parisian literary landscape Hélène Cixous Algeria Zahia Rahmani Algeria Leïla Sebbar Algeria Bessora Belgium Julia Kristeva Bulgaria Pia Petersen Denmark Maryse Condé Guadeloupe Eva Almassy Hungary Shumona Sinha India Chahdortt Djavann Iran Yumiko Seki Japan Evelyne Accad Lebanon Etel Adnan Lebanon Nathacha Appanah Mauritius Brina Svit Slovenia Eun Ja Kang South Korea Anna Mo Vietnam The Body in Francophone Literature El Hadji Malick Ndiaye, Moussa Sow, 2016-05-12 Much of Francophone literature is a response to an elaborate discourse that served to bolster colonial French notions of national grandeur and to justify expansion of French territories overseas A form of colonial exoticism saw the colonized subject as a physical cultural aesthetic and even sexual singularity Francophone writers sought to rehabilitate the status of non Western peoples who through the use of anthropometric techniques had been racially classified as inferior or primitive Drawing on various Francophone texts this collection of new essays offers a compelling study of the literary body both corporeal and figurative Topics include the embodiment of diasporic identity the body politic in prison writing women s bodies and the body s expression of trauma inflicted by genocidal violence

Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal,H Adlai Murdoch,2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural

Afropean Female Selves Christopher Hogarth,2022-10-31 Afropean Female Selves Migration and Language in the Life Writing of Fatou Diome and Igiaba Scego examines the corpus of writing of two contemporary female authors Both writers are of African descent live in Europe and write about lives across Europe and Africa in different languages French and Italian Their work involves episodes from their lived experience and complicates Western understandings of life writing and autobiography As Hogarth shows in this study the works of Diome and Scego encapsulate the new and complex identities of contemporary Afropeans As an identity coined and used frequently by prominent authors and critics across Europe Africa and North America the notion of Afropean is at the cutting edge of cultural analyses today Yet each writer occupies unique and different positions within this debated category While Scego is a post migratory subject in postcolonial Europe Diome is an African writer who has migrated to Europe in her adult life This book examines the different trajectories and packaging of these two specific postcolonial writers in the Francophone and Italophone contexts pointing out how and where each author practices life writing strategies and scrutinizing the trend that emphasizes the life writing autofictional or autoethnographic strategies of African diasporic writers Afropean Female Selves offers a comparative study across two languages of a notion that has so far been explored mainly in English It explores the contours of this new discursive category and positions it in regard to other notions of Afrodiasporic identity such as Afropolitan and Afro European Shaken Wisdom Gloria Nne Onyeoziri,2011 Introduction African ironies From rhetoric to semantics Interpreting irony Pragmatics and Ahmadou

The Beautiful Skin Vlad Dima, 2020-09-01 In this original and provocative study of contemporary African film and literature Vlad Dima investigates the way that football and cinema express individual and collective fantasies and highlights where football and cinema converge and diverge with regard to neocolonial fantasies Shedding new light on both well known and less familiar films by Mahamat Saleh Haroun Abderrahmane Sissako Jean Pierre Bekolo Moussa Tour Safi Faye Cheick Doukour and Joseph Ga Ramaka among others the study asks just whose fantasy is articulated in football and African cinema Answering this question requires the exploration of body and identity issues here through the metaphor of skin fantasy as a skin the football jersey as a skin and ultimately film itself as a skin that has visual aural and haptic qualities The neocolonial body is often depicted as suffering and in the process of being flattened or emptied So frequently do African cinema and literature replicate this hollowed body all skin as it were that it becomes the very type of body that defines neocolonialism Could the body of film the depth of both characters and story within the cinematic skin hold the key to moving into a post neocolonial era an era defined by full bodies and personal affirmation This is the question Dima seeks to answer
