Spacewear Barbara Brownie,2019-01-10 Today we are living in the New Space Age where mass commercial space travel is almost within our grasp This otherworldly possibility has opened up new cultural images of space both real and fictional and has caused fashion design and spacesuit engineering to intersect in new exciting ways Spacewear traverses this uncharted territory by exploring the changing imagination of space in fashion and fashion in space from the first Space Age to the 21st century Exploring how space travel has stylistically and technologically framed fashion design on earth and how we need to revisit established design practices for the weightless environment Spacewear connects the catwalk and the space station This book draws together speculative fantasies in sci fi films such as Star Trek and 2001 A Space Odyssey with the engineered spacesuits Biosuit and the NASA Z 2 and with catwalk interpretations by the likes of Alexander McQueen Hussein Chalayan Andr Courr ges and Iris van Herpen While the development of commercial space agencies has led to new concerns for style in garments for outer space that re think fundamental design principles such as drape high fashion has experimented with new possibilities for weightlessness that extend far beyond the 1960s vision of Space Age metallic fabrics and helmet style headwear Brownie takes the reader on a fascinating journey from fantasy to function and to form deepening our understanding of this new category of fashion that is prompting new approaches to garment design and construction both on earth and in outer space Leading the 21st-Century Academic Library Bradford Lee Eden, 2015-03-02 Libraries of all types have undergone significant developments in the last few decades The rate of change in the academic library a presence for decades now has been increasing in the first decade of this century It is no exaggeration to claim that it is undergoing a top to bottom redefinition Cataloging and reference remain central to its new role and the circulation of books is still high though declining Among the changes is the architecture of the library when new libraries replace old or where renovation is occurring the role of technology at every stage and in every library application the management of serials selection shelving and budgeting and in a gradual but irrevocable move to digital forms altered allocation of resources including larger portions of the budget diverted to preservation not only of aging books a theme in the latter part of the last century but of digital files cultural historical personal In brief the academic library is dramatically different today than it was only ten years ago And with it the profession of the academic librarian is also undergoing significant changes Managing digital resources in all its forms from telecommunications to storage and access devices is central to its new roles Creating curating and preserving digital information is also key to the new librarianship And what about services to its clients Here also we see dramatic change particularly but not exclusively with guiding library users in the effective use of networked knowledge Information literacy is a key term and skill in using the new tools of digital literacy reading and writing searching and extracting and the new technologies that drive social networking the Iphone Ipad and Ipod and its many imitators We can't expect the redefined academic library to assume its final shape any time soon if ever but the transformation is well underway This series Creating the 21st Century Academic Library will explore this topic from a number of different perspectives Volume 1 Visionary Leadership and Futures will begin the discussion by examining some of the new roles and directions academic libraries are taking Essentials of Lawyering Skills in Africa Festus Emiri, Ernest Owusu-Dapaa, 2020-07-01 In twenty two chapters divided into six parts for convenience the authors not only lay bare the art of lawyering but also provide invaluable nuggets of perfecting and excelling as a solicitor and advocate There is little doubt that the contents of this book dramatically make a lawyer especially the lawyer in Africa to be more effective more skilful and a proper lawyer useful to the client and society Make or Break Richard Calland, 2016-09-26 The next three years will determine whether South Africa succeeds or fails in the long term Jacob Zuma's term as president is due to end in 2019 though he could go earlier Who will succeed him and what will be the impact on policy The ANC's dominance has been significantly dented after opposition parties gained ground in the 2016 local government elections but will the minority and coalition governments in key cities hold or fall apart The economy is in trouble and the National Treasury has been buffeted by a struggle for power at the centre of government Will Pravin Gordhan and his band of reformers survive and succeed The public protector's term ends in October 2016 Will her successor hold the line The judiciary is under pressure and several positions have opened up on the Constitutional Court bench Will the rule of law be maintained Looking at these and other issues Richard Calland presents scenarios for the country's future showing how the next few years are the most critical since the early 1990s and how South Africa can set itself on a path to success or failure It really is make or break time reasoning Second it offers procedural insights into fact finding in constitutional litigation Third the book s analysis of the dynamic Australian case law on proportionality means it also serves to clarify the nature and status of proportionality in Australia at a critical moment Since the 2015 decision of McCloy v New South Wales where four justices supported the introduction of a structured three part test of proportionality the Court has continued to disagree about the utility of such a test These developments mean that this book with its doctrinal and comparative approach is particularly timely
