Le Soleil Des Mourants:

, A Sun for the Dying Jean-Claude Izzo, 2013-04-16 The final novel from the author of the Marseilles trilogy A bleak affecting tale about a man on the skids despairing of love's ability to heal Publishers Weekly Rico has been banished to society's margins he has neither a roof over his head nor a steady income on which to depend When a friend and fellow vagabond dies of exposure after a night spent in the Paris metro Rico decides to flee the northern cold for his beloved south for Marseilles and the warmth of the Mediterranean Diverted and hindered along the way he suffers the vagaries of human cruelty and pettiness and is warmed by occasional fleeting instances of human tenderness His return to the Mediterranean is simultaneously a homecoming and a pilgrimage in search of lost love innocence and humanity From the celebrated author of the Marseilles trilogy this is both an affecting on the road novel and a tender exploration of love's power to both heal and destroy Our last true romantic Jean Claude Izzo transmits warmth to his readers as if granting them a mouthful of pure love A Sun for the Dying is beautiful like a black sun tragic and desperate Le Point France Like a chanson by Jacques Brel or Charles Aznavour Izzo's harsh honed prose perfectly embodies that Gallic genius for balancing bleak unsentimentality with intense frank emotion making this a likely hit not just with fans of noir including Izzo's own Marseilles trilogy but also with devotees of Charles Bukowski Hubert Selby Jr and other great modern tragedians Booklist starred review Wicked City Nicholas Hewitt, 2019-11-01 Marseille is a thoroughly ambiguous place France's second city and its major sea port its impact on the national imagination is unparalleled Yet it is also a frontier city arguably capital of the Mediterranean and with a traditionally suspect allegiance to the French nation This apartness and the city's long and rich history as home to migrants workers and organized criminals has cemented its association in the popular imagination with exoticism and illicit activity In this history Nicholas Hewitt explores Marseille's extraordinary cultural wealth from the Revolution to the present century charting the development of its bad reputation its rogue status within France and its international importance The narratives devoted to this great port city range from the legend of its football team to The Count of Monte Cristo Hewitt discovers Marseille through the eyes of writers painters and sculptors film makers music hall stars architects and rappers from the viewpoints of French German British and American visitors and as a celebration of its humane cosmopolitanism often in contrast with national French sentiment Wicked City is a vivid and complex portrait of one of the Mediterranean's great cities going beyond the popular stereotypes to uncover the true Marseille in its full richness Le roman urbain contemporain en France Christina Horvath, 2007 The Europa Directory of Literary Awards and Prizes Europa, 2015 Migrations in the Mediterranean Ricard Zapata-Barrero, Ibrahim Awad, 2023-10-21 This open access Regional Reader describes population movement circulating within the Mediterranean area for any reason or from any region be them European African Asian or originating from any of the Mediterranean shores It showcases a plurality of approaches to and applications of Mediterranean migration contributing to a regional approach to migration studies thereby defending

Conrad's Western World Norman Sherry, 1971 Conrad's Western World traces the sources of Heart of Darkness Nostromo The Secret Agent and some of the short stories related to these novels As in his highly acclaimed Conrad's Eastern World Professor Sherry provides an interesting blend of biographical reconstruction and investigation into the originals of the main incidents and characters Kurtz Nostromo Verloc and many of the minor figures as well It has been possible to show in the study of Conrad's source material a movement away from analyses of personal experience or the narrated experiences of others to a manipulation of material entirely outside the bounds of his own experience This change reveals also a movement in interest from personal and private dilemmas to wider and more public concerns and shows Conrad developing a progressive sense of the frightening underside of human society Finally Professor Sherry considers the play of Conrad's mind over his source material and traces the development of individual works from the given sources to the completed fiction This reconstruction of Conrad's original materials and the tracing of their development into literary works of great distinction gives us a unique insight into Conrad's preoccupations and art
