marriage and liberation A merger of art criticism evolutionary theory political history and aesthetics this book paints the struggle between female autonomy and patriarchal violence and extremism as the essence of art The Beauty of Choice pursues its claims through a striking diversity of examples Sei Shonagon's defense of pleasure in the Pillow Book Picasso's and Balthus's sexualization of their models the redefinition of waste in postmodern fiction and interactivity and empathy in the works of contemporary artists such as Marlene Dumas Barbara MacCallum Kristin Beeler and Hannah Gadsby It offers the first critical study of Heroines a memorial to the twenty thousand women raped in Kosovo during the Serbian genocide This deeply original book gives taste beauty and pleasure central roles in a passionate defense of women's freedom

Venus in Exile Wendy Steiner, 2002-11-15 In Venus in Exile renowned cultural critic Wendy Steiner explores the twentieth century's troubled relationship with beauty Disdained by avant garde artists feminists and activists beauty and its major symbols of art the female subject and ornament became modernist taboos To this day it is hard to champion beauty in art without sounding aesthetically or politically retrograde Steiner argues instead that the experience of beauty is a form of communication a subject object interchange in which finding someone or something beautiful is at the same time recognizing beauty in oneself This idea has led artists and writers such as Marlene Dumas Christopher Bram and Cindy Sherman to focus on the long ignored figure of the model who function in art as both a subject and an object Steiner concludes Venus in Exile on a decidedly optimistic note demonstrating that beauty has created a new and intensely pleasurable direction for contemporary artistic practice

Phenomenologies are a major stream of philosophy Our aim with this handbook is to explore critically and reflexively the plurality of phenomenologies and their becoming in the context of Management and Organization Studies We detail in the introduction the genealogy of the phenomenological moment and make a distinction between four streams of phenomenologies phenomenology as a phenomenological moment post phenomenologies anti phenomenologies and non phenomenologies Beyond many clichés about phenomenologies we argue that phenomenologies cultivate critical perspectives ontologies and even for some of them metaphysics that make them particularly interwoven with other philosophical traditions We draw implications for Management and Organization Studies as a field      Transmissibility Jae Emerling, 2023-08-17 This book examines transmissibility to remind us why the vitality and epistemic significance of an artwork is anachronistic and futural Transmissibility Writing Aesthetic History performs a transdisciplinary philosophy of aesthetic history via the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Cy Twombly Marina Abramovi Paul Celan Cecil Taylor Italo Calvino Candida Höfer and others by focusing on the artistic and historiographic labor that differentiates artworks from other modes of creation      Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include André Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Eskia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie      Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand, 2020-03-06 When nations decide to disown their troubled pasts how does this strategic disavowal harden into social fact In Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand investigates the erasure of key aspects of such momentous events as the Nanjing Massacre the Cultural Revolution and the Tiananmen Square protests from the Chinese historical consciousness not due to amnesia or censorship but through the operations of public secrecy Knowing what not to know she argues has many stakeholders willing and otherwise who keep quiet to protect themselves or their families out of shame pragmatism or the palliative effects of silence Hillenbrand shows how secrecy works as a powerful structuring force in Chinese society one hiding in plain sight and identifies aesthetic artifacts that serve as modes of reckoning against this phenomenon She analyses the proliferation of photo forms remediations of well known photographs of troubling historical events rendered in such media as paint celluloid fabric digital imagery and tattoos as imaginative spaces in which the shadows of secrecy are provocatively outlined     The Trouble with Beauty Wendy Steiner, 2001 Steiner explores the twentieth century's troubled relationship with beauty Where previous eras had celebrated beauty as the central aim of art the twentieth century modernist avant garde were deeply suspicious of beauty and its perennial symbols woman and ornament Modernism's rejection of traditional tenets of beauty harmony empathy and femininity still reverberate through both art and society today
