Revenge Never Dies Nadia Aidan, 2012-04 Masochist Book one in the Revenge Never Dies Series What would you do for revenge To what lengths would you go Would you destroy the man you loved or would you let him destroy you La Ville des Dieux the city of the gods It isn't It is a city full of evil demons and devils that prey upon the weak the vulnerable the pitiless and the poor Mortal men who call themselves gods own the city control the lives of all who live within its vast borders Yet they aren't gods just men with the faces of angels and godlike bearings And they share the weaknesses of all men their sins their lusts their desires and Selena knows this with a certainty Sixteen years ago the most beautiful of all the gods took her innocence and in doing so he destroyed her soul She has never forgiven him and on the anniversary of that night she sets out to remind him that some sins can never be forgiven that some sins can only be atoned for with the sacrifice of blood Adonis The most beautiful of all the gods He bears the face of an angel and with a simple touch a single look he can inflame the passions of both women and men Some say his beauty and the desire he ignites with his touch is a gift others say it is his curse When he stares into the ravished eyes of his past he knows this woman who once found pleasure beneath his touch has been equally cursed by it Sixteen years ago he destroyed the only woman to love him and ripped apart her soul in order to save her life No matter the sacrifice or the intent there are some sins that can never be forgiven But on the anniversary of that night both Adonis and Selena will discover that while some sins require payment in blood sins of the flesh can only be atoned for with the surrender of the body One night forever changed their lives and this one promises to do the same
