Performing Disunion Lawrence T. McDonnell, 2018-06-30 This book traces how and why the secession of the South during the American Civil War was accomplished at ground level through the actions of ordinary men. Adopting a micro historical approach, Lawrence T. McDonnell works to connect small events in new ways; he places one company of the secessionist Minutemen in historical context, exploring the political and cultural dynamics of their choices. Every chapter presents little known characters whose lives and decisions were crucial to the history of Southern disunion. McDonnell asks readers to consider the past with fresh eyes, analyzing the structure and dynamics of social networks and social movements. He presents the dissolution of the Union through new events, actors, issues and ideas, illuminating the social contradictions that cast the South's most conservative city as the radical heart of Dixie.

Media Accountability in the Era of Post-Truth Politics Tobias Eberwein, Susanne Fengler, Matthias Karmasin, 2019-06-28 Bringing together both leading international scholars and emerging academic talent, Media Accountability in the Era of Post Truth Politics maps the current state of media accountability in Europe and provides fresh perspectives for future developments in media and communication fields. As the integrity of the international media landscape is challenged by far reaching transformations and the rise of fake news, the need for a functional system of media regulation is greater than ever. This book addresses the pressing need to re-evaluate and redefine the notion of accountability in the fast changing field of journalism and information provision. Using comparative research and empirical data, the book's case studies address the notion of media accountability from various perspectives, considering political and societal change, economic, organisational and technological factors and the changing role of media audiences. By collecting and juxtaposing these studies, the book provides a new discussion for the old question of how we can safeguard free and responsible media in Europe, a question that seems more urgent than ever. Media Accountability in the Era of Post Truth Politics is an essential read for students and researchers in journalism, media and communication studies.

Media/Society David Croteau, William Hoynes, Clayton Childress, 2025-05-06 Media Society: Technology, Industries, Content and Users provides a framework to help students understand the relationship between media and society while developing skills to critically evaluate both conventional wisdom and one's own assumptions about the social role of media. The Eighth Edition retains its basic sociological framework but has been thoughtfully streamlined in length while still including additional discussions of new studies and up to date material about a rapidly changing media landscape With updated research the latest industry data and current examples from popular media this edition helps illustrate enduring themes in the sociology of media *Encyclopedia of journalism. 6.
