

Personal Essay

It was one of the beautiful summer days in Iran, one of the pretty hot days that are common in this region. The city had already waked up, but I did not have the slightest intention of getting out of bed. What for? To meet with the judging stares again? To hear how awkward I was? To face vivid, open hostility? I was so tired of that. Still, I did not have a choice. I promised my mother I would sweep the backyard, the place where I would see our "nearest and dearest" neighbors. Do not get me wrong, I like people, and I am always looking forward to helping them. Nevertheless, what I cannot stand is prying into my personal life.

If you ever go to Iran, be ready for continuous prying. At first, you can mistake it for curiosity. All people would seem so friendly to you. They will listen to you with close attention. You bet it flatters one's vanity. However, in a week, you will understand what I mean. Living here is like living in an aquarium. The neighbors treat you as a quaint fish and observe you all the time waiting for some kind of trick. What type of fish was I supposed to be? Most probably, people saw me as a clownfish. I was a Christian, and it bothered them a lot. I was unlike others, I was a black swan among them. To tell the truth, I wanted to be another fish. I wanted to be a plaice. I dreamt of hiding myself in sand and algae so that nobody would see me. Oh, I would give everything I had to become a plaice and skip sweeping that damn backyard. Nevertheless, I had to do it. So, I humbly put my shoes on and floated outside the room.

Two heads appeared over the fence immediately. "Good morning, Jasmine!"
